NOTE:

The Bureau previously approved the anonymous sending of a newspaper article entitled "Panther Record Ignored by Fund Raisers" to individuals determined to be sources of BPP funds taking them to task for not looking into Panther criminal violence. It was felt that this approach should neutralize possible support for the Panthers through the identification with the BPP suggested by the personal mailing approach. Los Angeles suggests as a follow-up like use of a newspaper article which is an unsigned editorial from the April 27, 1970, Pacific Coast Edition of "The Wall Street Journal." Entitled "Simply Incredible," it wonders how the student strikers at Yale University including Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin could contend for no New Haven Panther trial in view of evidence introduced at the bail hearings. It also describes as incredible how people were willing in one Panther case to believe the set bail was too high, yet when it was lowered and posted, the Panther defendant promptly jumped it. Since most of the funds contributed have been earmarked for bail bonds, the article should be a timely item of concern.

Simply Incredible

Students at Yale University have been striking in "support" of Bobby Seale and other Black Panthers on trial in New Haven for kidnapping and murder.

As the strike gathered steam last week, bail hearings preceding the trial afforded the first public glimpse of the chief prosecution witness, George Sams Jr., who has already entered a plea of guilty to second-degree murder in the case. He testified he was present during these episodes: Panther member Alex Rackley was accused of being a police informer. Mr. Seale, chairman of the Black Panther Party, visited a New Haven apartment where Mr. Rackley was tied spread-eagled on a bed. Appropos of the Panther slogan "off the pigs," that is, "kill the police," there followed an exchange:

Seale: "Are you the pig?"

Rackley: "No, sir, chairman, I am not the pig."

Seale: "What you do with a pig? A pig is a pig. Off the [obscenity]."

Whereupon, according to the testimony, three of the defendants took Mr. Rackley to a river in Middlefield, Conn., and shot him. "We were told not to come back unless he was dead," the witness testified. A second Panther named as a gunman has also entered a plea of guilty to second-degree murder and is expected to testify later.

Now, none of this necessarily means Mr. Seale and the others are guilty. They are entitled to the same initial presumption of innocence as other defendants facing other charges, and they have skillful attorneys to rebut the accusations. The whole purpose of the trial is to determine whether such testimony is true.

What the strikers at Yale are contending, though, is that there should not be a trial at all. In the face of such detailed eye-witness testimony, Mr. Seale and others should simply be turned loose. As Yale Chaplain William Sloane Coffin put it in inciting the strikers, "Tell the nation some of us feel this whole trial was a dreadful mistake."

Even the simply incredible, we suppose, should no longer be shocking when it comes to what a good many people will believe about the Panthers. They were willing to believe there was a national conspiracy of "genocide" against the Panthers because of charges that 28 of them have been killed by police; though when asked to name names, Panther attorney Charles Garry came up with only 12 even he asserted were killed by police, and in most of these cases he did not deny the Panthers were themselves armed and firing. In another Panther case in New York, people were willing to believe bail of $50,000 to $100,000 per defendant was outrageously high; though when one of the original defendants posted bail of $25,000 he promptly jumped it.

Still, the notion that the Government is somehow guilty of political persecution when it brings to trial kidnapping and murder charges backed by eyewitness testimony is something else. The question is how far they will have to go before the Yale students, Rev. Coffin and the rest of the Panther apologists forfeit all claim to the attention of any serious-minded man.

Reairtel requests Bureau authority to forward a letter from a fictitious person to Hollywood, California, gossip columnists to publicize the pregnancy of Jean Seberg, well-known white movie actress, by [redacted] BPP [redacted] to possibly cause her embarrassment and tarnish her image with the general public. Information from [redacted] indicated that Seberg was four months pregnant by [redacted]

To protect the sensitive source of information from possible compromise and to insure the success of your plan, Bureau feels it would be better to wait approximately two additional months until Seberg's pregnancy would be obvious to everyone. NOTE:

Jean Seberg has been a financial supporter of the BPP and should be neutralized. Her current pregnancy by [redacted] while still married affords an opportunity for such effort. The plan suggested by Los Angeles appears to have merit except for the timing since the sensitive source might be compromised if implemented prematurely. Re Bureau letter to St. Louis, 3/18/70.

St. Louis has thoroughly considered the matter outlined in referenced communication. [redacted] has both the intelligence and the background to prepare bogus stationary and write suitable letters. However, at the present time, he cannot logically do so under the title of the Black Liberators. The demise of the Black Liberators is well known to former St. Louis Black leaders, including such travelers as [redacted]

Any attempt by the informant to initiate correspondence now under the Black Liberator byline for transmission to other U. S. extremist groups could result in suspicion and possible disclosure.

The informant can, of course, continue to receive all mail sent to the Black Liberators and to acknowledge the receipt of same to foreign groups or individuals.

St. Louis is of the opinion that informant's productivity in this matter can be greatly expanded, along the suggestions set forth in Bureau letter to New York dated 4/17/70 captioned, [redacted] [redacted] This is currently being evaluated and the Bureau will be advised of recommendations by separate communication.

[REDACTED] had ceased cooperating with everyone in the New Left movement and had become very difficult to work with. [REDACTED] indicated she was too busy to participate in a demonstration being planned for 4/15/70 protesting welfare cuts in the Wisconsin and United States budgets.

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] had not been seen around Milwaukee since 4/11/70. It was learned, according to the source, that [REDACTED] was out of the city attending to some "business." Further, it appears that everyone around WCCF headquarters was "up tight" and that no one knew where [REDACTED] was; however, it was possible she had travelled to the West Coast.

Re Jackson letter to Bureau, 3/27/70.

In referenced letter Jackson set out a lead to obtain information regarding an article in the Cleveland, Miss., weekly newspaper concerning the Black Panther Party (BPP) group, which article was prompted by a series of articles published in the Jackson Daily News during the period 3/23 - 26/70.

On 4/3/70, it was determined that CLIFF LANGFORD, Editor of the Bolivar Commercial, Cleveland, Miss., published a very brief paragraph regarding the Black Panther group in Cleveland, which paragraph was part of a lengthy editorial on numerous different unrelated subjects.

This editorial said in part, "Our friend, JIMMY WARD, Editor of the Jackson Daily News, has this week placed the spotlight of publicity on the activities of an organization calling themselves Black Panthers. This group of revolutionaries is active in Cleveland in a small way but they have stayed within the law." The article went on to say words to the effect that law enforcement authorities were encouraged to use forces available to counter this "bunch of communist indoctrinated revolutionaries who peddle filth".

It is noted that as of 4/23/70, the National Committee to Combat Fascism Group in Cleveland, Miss.,

NOTE:

The elimination of Panther outside sources of funds is an important counterintelligence objective which is recognized in suggested use of newspaper article enclosure of reairtel. The article from an undetermined source, but with Washington dateline, written by Robert Allen and John Goldsmith, is entitled "Panther Record Ignored by Fund Raisers." It takes to task various types of individuals involved in socialite affairs to raise funds for the Panthers without taking into account the unchallengeable police records throughout the country which reveal "a blood-smear, crime-drenched account of virtually every category of major offenses committed by Black Panthers." The article then proceeds to list names, crimes and facts concerning the Panthers to strongly recommend its use for the requested purpose. To the person financially supporting the Panthers, it should afford food for thought and neutralization of all possible support for the Panthers through the identification with the BPP suggested by the personal mailing approach.

Panther Record Ignored By Fund Raise

WASHINGTON — There is grisly irony behind those carefully publicized socialite affairs to raise "defense" funds for the Black Panthers.

While the "beautiful people," jet-setters, show biz personalities and other exotic bleeding-hearts and do-gooders gather in swank apartments and ornate salons to shiveringly deplore and decry gory Black Panther accounts of police "brutality" and "violence," the unchallengeable police records throughout the country reveal a very different story.

It is a blood-smear, crime-drenched account of virtually every category of major offenses committed by Black Panthers.

LENGTHY RECORD

These indisputable official police records disclose that last year more than 150 Black Panthers were arrested for committing upwards of 150 serious crimes — including murder, armed robbery, rape, auto and various other thefts, bank hold-ups, purse snatching, narcotics violations, rioting, illegal possession of guns, rifles and other weapons, and defiance of the Selective Service Act.

More than 100 guns of various kinds were confiscated from Black Panthers; also a number of bombs.

These stark and irrefutable facts are never mentioned at the socialite money-raising wallows. There is much gushy hand-wringing and indignant wailing over claimed police abuses, but never a word about Black Panther depredations and criminality.

DIRECT ASSAULT

Not is anything ever said about the widespread prevalence of criminals among the Black Panthers, and the open advocacy by Panther leaders and their official publication of attacking police.

"Off the pigs" (Meaning kill the police) is an open Panther battle cry. Since the Panther inception in 1967, they have killed five policemen and wounded 42 others in unprovoked assaults.

CRIME INCREASES

The 1969 police records show that wherever Black Panthers congregated they were in the forefront of crime and vice.

Following are illustrative instances throughout the country:

New Haven, Conn. — 14 Black Panthers, including 2 juveniles, were arrested for the murder of Alex Rackley, a Black Panther from New York City. Investigation disclosed that he was killed because he was suspected of being a police informer.

NEWARK, N. J. — Donald Gregory Weems, a Black Panther member, held up a bank. His accomplice shot the bank president who resisted the robbery. Weems was captured by police after being wounded.

Also in Newark, six Black Panthers were arrested for possession of a stolen car.

Philadelphia — Richard Schell, Black Panther captain, was arrested by federal agents for possession of an M-14 carbine stolen from the government.

Baltimore — Jimmy Lamar Foxworth arrested for possession of a loaded .38 caliber pistol.

WEAPONS CHARGES

Chicago — Joseph Gray and Donald Smiley, both Black Panthers, were arrested for shooting at a Negro walking toward a Chicago Housing Authority project. Each was found to be armed with a pistol. Also in Chicago, four Black Panthers were arrested by federal authorities on charges of buying machine guns.

Seattle — Willie Brazier Jr., Black Panther lieutenant of education, arrested for robbery of the Fidelity Mutual Savings Bank.

Eugene, Ore. — Howard Douglas Anderson Jr., Black Panther captain, was indicted for assault with a dangerous weapon.

Sacramento, Calif. — Black Panther Leroy Haskins charged with robbing Cal's Market.

San Francisco — Cleveland Brooks, Black Panther official, was arrested for firing a rifle from the window of his apartment. Two weapons and a quantity of ammunition were confiscated from him.

FIRED ON POLICE

Los Angeles — A group led by a Black Panther was fired on by police in a stolen car. One of them fired a shotgun at the police, but after a chase and gun battle, they were captured, one of them wounded. Under questioning they admitted committing armed robbery at a drive-in restaurant, and planning to attack Negro security officers to obtain guns.

Also in Los Angeles, Black Panther John Leonard Clark was arrested for burglary. Five other Black Panthers were arrested for robbery. They were armed with a revolver, an automatic pistol and a sawed-off carbine. A month later, three other Panthers were arrested for robbing a school.

On another occasion, Black Panthers Elmer Gerard Pratt and Roger Lee Lewis were arrested in Los Angeles for possession of a bomb.

San Diego — Black Panther Abraham Barnett was arrested for burglary. Ten days later he was again arrested for the same offense. The following month, six Black Panthers were arrested for possession of illegal weapons and stolen property. Police seized three shotguns and one rifle.

CRIMINAL BACKGROUNDS

Another indisputable reality never mentioned in the socialites' fund-raising soirees is that Black Panther ranks are filled with hoodlums and thugs with long criminal records.

Following are some revealing examples:

Jorge Aponte Jr., Brooklyn, con-

Robert Allen and John Goldsmith

victed of attempted robbery with a sawed-off shotgun. Also in New York, Anthony Cosica was arrested for assault and robbery.

In Newark, N.J., Black Panther Jerome Chambers has over 20 arrests, for larceny, assault, robbery and narcotics violations. And Black Panther Isiah Hovley has a long arrest record for armed robbery, breaking and entering, looting, narcotics violations and assaulting a police officer.

Fred Alan Hampton, field director of the Chicago Black Panthers, recently killed in a gun battle with police, had a long criminal record, including arrests for robbery, aggravated assault and mob action.

Denver, Colo. — Panther member George Earl Farrow has been arrested 17 times in the last 10 years on charges of robbery, larceny, burglary, assaults, and narcotics violations.

Tommy Lee Horne, of the San Diego Panthers, has several burglary convictions. And James Thomas Johnson was arrested in San Diego for possession of a revolver which had been taken in a burglary.

ATTACKS ON POLICE

By 1969, Black Panthers engaged in at least 13 unprovoked attacks on police and violently resisted arrest.

The Black Panther propaganda line is that they resort to armed force to "defend" themselves. In no instance does the record bear that out. The record does show that they openly call for "Off the pigs" — meaning kill the police.

This has been the Black Panthers' course since their inception. From the very start, they have advocated armed attacks on police. And they have done that, as follows:

In New York City, two policemen stopped to give assistance to an apparently disabled car parked beside an expressway. Two Negroes, subsequently identified as Black Panthers Anthony Coston and Clark Edward Simire, told the officers they were having motor trouble, then one of them suddenly opened fire on the police with a pistol. One policeman was wounded and the two Panthers fled. Later a 19-year-old girl told police she had accompanied the two Panthers to rent a car that was to be used in setting up this deliberate ambush.

Black Panthers set up a loudspeaker in front of their headquarters in San Francisco. The loudspeaker was manned by Cleveland Brooks, who urged the crowd to bring guns to "kill the pigs" whenever a police car passed by. The Panthers also had a mobile loudspeaker over which the crowd was urged to "kill the pigs." Police finally arrested the operators of these loudspeakers. Brooks, wearing a gun in his belt, ran into Panther headquarters, where police were met with a rifle pointed at him. Tear gas was used to effect the arrest, and two rifles, two shotguns and two pistols, plus ammunition was confiscated.

MURDER CONSPIRACY

Five Panthers were arrested in Los Angeles for conspiring to murder a police officer. The Panthers fled into their headquarters, and when police followed they were met by John William Washington who aimed a pistol at them. He was disarmed, after which police seized two revolvers, an automatic and one rifle, all loaded and cocked on a nearby table.

In San Diego, Panthers Ronald Freeman and Mark Leroy Maxwell were arrested for firing a shot with a sawed-off rifle through a police ambulance.

The claim of Panther attorney Carlos Garry that 28 Panthers have been "victims of unprovoked and cold-blooded police murder" is a complete fabrication. The actual facts don't support this contention.

Only 28 of these alleged "victims" have been named, and of them 18 were not involved in shooting incidents with police. Their deaths were due to the following:

Four were killed by members of a rival black extremist organization; two were slain by private citizens; one was found in an alley with bullet holes from a weapon registered to a prominent Los Angeles Black Panther; one was killed by his wife; another by fellow Black Panthers; and the 10th died of barbiturate intoxication.

That's the sordid crime and murder-ridden record of the recipients of the dewey-eyed sympathy and easy-come dollars of the socialite bleeding-hearts and jet-set do-gooders.

To recommend that attached news media item be furnished to a cooperative news media source on a confidential basis. The item relates to open criticism by black extremist Stokely Carmichael of the Black Panther Party (BPP) organization and ideology.

D. DeLoach

Carmichael was formerly Prime Minister of the BPP. In that capacity he was a leading spokesman for the BPP and it was largely through his public statements that the BPP enjoyed such widespread success during its efforts to recruit new members and expand its chapters across the Nation.

Carmichael publicly resigned from the BPP in July, 1969, primarily because he felt that the BPP should remain an exclusively black organization whereas other leaders of the group favored cooperation with white radical groups.

Carmichael departed from the U.S. in December, 1968, and resided in Africa until his return to the U.S. on 3/18/70 for a brief stay. During his stay he has made a number of public appearances at universities and on television programs. It was during an appearance on 4/10/70 at the New Bethel Baptist Church in Washington, D. C. that he expressed his criticism of the BPP.

ACTION:

That the attached item be furnished to a cooperative news media source on a confidential basis. It is felt that publication of Carmichael's utterances against the BPP may be used in generating additional mutual animosity between him and the Panthers to the benefit of the Bureau.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

Vociferous Stokely Carmichael, perennial exponent of black extremism, left the United States in December, 1968, and since that time has been studying Pan-African ideology at the feet of deposed Ghanaian leader Kwame Nkrumah. Pan-Africanism stresses the unification of blacks and the establishment of a land base in Africa from which to mount black revolution against white society. The Pan-African movement under Nkrumah's leadership, and with Carmichael's most eloquent backing, does not allow for participation in any form by the hated white whether he be radical or racially moderate.

Indeed, Carmichael, as the foremost exponent of the black power movement, publicly resigned from his position of Prime Minister of the Black Panther Party in July, 1969, over the Black Panther Party's decision to enter into a coalition with elements of the radical white New Left movement.

At a public appearance at the New Bethel Baptist Church, Ninth and S Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C., on the evening of April 10, 1970, Carmichael launched a vindictive attack on the Black Panther Party organization and its black-and-white-revolution-together ideology. Carmichael labeled the Black Panther Party's ideology false and stated it is his view blacks are unable to understand or relate to it. As if fearful of what might ensue, Carmichael called for the cessation of Black Panther Party attacks on him, and in defense of his own position, stated that if the Black Panther Party organization does not want to join him, they should refrain from attacks on his ideology.

On 4/13/70, STOKELY CARMICHAEL, appeared as a guest on the DAVID FROST Show on Channel 5 television, NYC.

During the course of the ensuing interview conducted by FROST, CARMICHAEL stated in effect that he thought "ADOLPH HITLER" was a great personage in history.

The NYO feels that the above described situation presents an opportunity to engage in a counterintelligence operation which it is hoped would discredit and disrupt the operations of individual Black Nationalists and Black Nationalist groups.

The following proposal is submitted to the Bureau:

That a letter should be sent to those individuals in NYC who have shown in the past that they are supporters of or at least sympathetic to Black Nationalists as individuals as well as the aims and goals of organizations such as the BPP.

It should be noted that the individuals to be selected would also be those who would have shown a strong interest in combating anti-Semitism as well as indicating support for the State of Israel in its international affairs.

The article from the BPP newspaper of March 21, 1970, page 24, has not been included as an attachment to this airtel due to its size but if Bureau approval is granted for this proposal, it can readily be reduced to a size suitable for mailing by the NYO.

Dear:

I am taking the liberty of corresponding with you, for the purpose of expressing my outrage at your apparent support of supposed "Black Nationalists" and the groups they represent such as the "Black Panther Party".

If it is not obvious to you at this time that you are giving aid and comfort to the most blatant and sinister advocates of anti-Semitism then you are callous to current events and unconcerned about the fate of world Jewry.

In order to make you more aware of what these "Black Fascists" think I have enclosed an article from the April 14, 1970 issue of "The New York Times".

As you can read the white man who Stokely Carmichael admires the most is none other than "Adolph Hitler", the author of the Holocaust which resulted in the extermination of six million Jews.

I have also enclosed an article from the March 21, 1970 issue of "The Black Panther", the official newspaper of that "Jack-booted gang of Black Storm Troopers" who extort and threaten us constantly in our everyday lives.

This article clearly smacks of pro-Arab, pro-Nassar propaganda as well as showing graphically what your "darling, oppressed, politically and economically disenfranchised Schwartzers" really think of our beloved homeland Israel.

I think you are showing signs of suffering from the effects of the "Power to the people syndrom". You support a pack of neo-Nazi and fascists because of their glib slogans and ability to arouse your concern for the disadvantaged and distressed.

Do not let the facts of history elude you - there was a few short years ago another uniformed mob in another country that also shouted "Power to the people". We did not listen then. We must listen now.

A concerned and loyal Jew

Stokely Carmichael, in 'Objective' View Sees Hitler as 'Greatest White'

By FRED FERRETTI

Stokely Carmichael said last night that, "judging his genius objectively," Adolph Hitler was his nominee for "the greatest white man." At the same time Mr. Carmichael asserted that, from a moral viewpoint, what Hitler did "was wrong, was evil."

The former chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, recently returned from 14 months in Africa, listed his versions of history's heroes and villains in a wide-ranging interview on the David Frost television program.

His remarks about Hitler came when Mr. Frost asked him who was "the white man and the black man you most admire in the world."

Lists Blacks He Admires

Among the blacks, Mr. Carmichael named the late Patrice Lumumba, former leader of the Republic of Katanga; Huey P. Newton, a founder of the Black Panther party; the late Malcolm X; and the late Marcus Garvey, leader of a back-to-Africa movement. The man he most admires, Mr. Carmichael said, is Kwame Nkrumah, the deposed leader of Ghana, currently in exile in Guinea, where Mr. Carmichael spent most of his 14 months.

As for his white list, Mr. Carmichael said: "I couldn't say who was my hero. But if you could ask me who I think was the greatest white man, perhaps I could say that."

Mr. Frost asked, "Who was that?"

"I would think Adolph Hitler was the most..." began Mr. Carmichael, but gasps, booing and jeering from the studio audience interrupted him. He waited, then continued, "...

When you talk about greatness, you don't put ethical judgments or moral judgments on them. And when you talk about genius you do not put ethical or moral judgments on it. The man who created the atom bomb was a genius, even though it's used for destructive purposes—he's still a genius.

"Adolph Hitler—I'm not putting a judgment on what he did—if you asked me for my judgment morally, I would say it was bad, what he did was wrong, was evil, etc. But I would say he was a genius, nevertheless."

Cites Hitler's 'Genius'

When Mr. Frost suggested that Mr. Carmichael might have been facetious in the remarks about Hitler, Mr. Carmichael responded:

"You say he's not a genius because he committed bad acts. That's not the question. The question is, he does have genius. Now when we condemn him morally or ethically, we will say, well, he was absolutely wrong, he should be killed, he should be murdered, etc., etc."

"But if we're judging his genius objectively, we have to admit that the man was a genius. He forced the entire world to fight him. He was fighting America, France, Britain, Russia, Italy once—then she switched sides—all of them at the same time, and whupping them. That's a genius, you cannot deny that."

Al Fath, does not intend to push the Jews into the sea

THE SUFFERING and frustration of the Palestinian people over the years gave rise to a new truly popular dynamic Palestinian Liberation Movement. This underground Movement expressed the people's belief that there can be no resolution other than through their own concerted efforts. The Movement was started in 1956 by young Palestinians during the temporary occupation of the Gaza Strip by Israeli forces.

The Movement is composed of two bodies - a political bureau known as "Al Fath", and "Al Assifa", her military wing.

"Al Fath" consists of all Palestinian elements and political-interest groups. It strives to mobilize and synthesize their potentials. All her members must be able to face military duty, and have genuine faith in the struggle for independence, no matter how long it may take. They must be willing to sacrifice their lives for their country's cause.

Members pass through strict periods of military training. They are given protection in three main ways:

1. General membership protection. The members' names and privileges, to whom their names are guaranteed and can only be rescinded by a high military court.

2. Political. The Movement takes personal care of all its members and, should need arise, provides lawyers to defend them in any court.

3. Economic Assistance. In case of imprisonment or death, "Al Fath" has care of all the families and social obligations of its members.

The bulk of "Al Fath" funds come from Palestine, with the rest are primarily from individuals throughout the Arab World.

The armed wing "Al Assifa" organizes guerrilla warfare against the occupying forces.

against the occupying forces in Palestine. Its first news communique was released on January 1st, 1965, since then, nearly 160 bulletins have been issued. Raids that cut Israeli communication lines, sabotaged their industries, and destroyed strategic military installations (from paramilitary kibbutzim, railway, to electric power plants) have all been reported by these news communiques.

The purpose of "Al Assifa" is to destroy the economic, military, social, and political structure of "Israel", as well as bring world attention to the right of the dispossessed, uprooted and displaced Palestinian people.

The basic strategy of the Movement is:

I. There should be an awareness of the Palestinian Problem on the regional, national and international levels.

II. There should be an adoption of the following credos in the context of a revolutionary framework:

- a.) The commando as the nucleus of the Liberation Movement;
- b.) The unification of efforts towards establishing a supporting front;

III. It should be understood that the fight against Israel is waged on the grounds that Israel is an aggressive, expanding foe and that Israel is a confirmed tool of imperialism in the Middle East.

"Al Fath" has and will always insist that the military wing "Al Assifa", is not operating against any particular faith. Palestine has consisted for centuries of Arabs belonging to the Moslem, Christian, Jewish and other faiths. Harmony has always prevailed between these groups in Palestine.

It should be understood that the fight against Israel is waged on the grounds that Israel is an aggressive, expanding foe and that Israel is a confirmed tool of imperialism in the Middle East.

It should be understood that the fight against Israel is waged on the grounds that Israel is an aggressive, expanding foe and that Israel is a confirmed tool of imperialism in the Middle East.

The Soul School continues to operate at 522 N. Fremont Street, Baltimore, Maryland, however, classes are held on an irregular basis and attendance has been small.

2. Operations Being Effected

No operations of the Soul School or the BPP are being effected at this time.

The Baltimore Division placed a telephone call to BPP Headquarters, San Francisco, California, in which a complaint was made against [REDACTED] regarding his living with a white woman. The San Francisco BPP Headquarters was further advised that several of the BPP members in Baltimore had been run out of the "pad" so that [REDACTED] could live alone with this white woman.

[redacted] advised the unknown woman that [redacted] Baltimore Chapter was living with a "white pig" and that he had run some of the brothers away from the "pad" so that he could be alone with this "white trash." Unknown woman at Panther Headquarters assured [redacted] that they would check the report out and that they would take whatever action was necessary.

Action taken against [redacted] by BPP Headquarters was unknown at this time, however, [redacted] furnished information indicating that [redacted] was being directed to travel to the "coast."

4. Developments of Counterintelligence Interest

The Baltimore Division remains of the opinion that it is important to keep the Soul School and BPP from forming an alliance. No direct measures are being taken in this regard except that sources in the Soul School have been instructed to discourage any attempts by the Soul School to align themselves with the BPP.

designated for Bufile 100-448006 entitled "COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM, BLACK NATIONALIST-HATE GROUPS, RACIAL INTELLIGENCE - BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)," [REDACTED]

With respect to the counterintelligence matter, presently pending with respect to [REDACTED], it is noted that [REDACTED] continues to criticize individuals working in behalf of the BPP in Europe at the present time. In addition, [REDACTED] has in effect criticized ELDRIDGE CLEAVER again in referring to the recent expulsions [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] statement that [REDACTED] thinks [REDACTED] acted too quickly in that matter, and this has resulted in the current problems with respect to [REDACTED] in Paris. [REDACTED] also has again expressed displeasure with the activities of [REDACTED] noting that [REDACTED] previously implied there was also some problem with respect to this individual.

It is also interesting to note that [REDACTED] indicated that [REDACTED] was upset with [REDACTED] conversation with [REDACTED] in view of the fact [REDACTED] did not receive a statement of some sort from [REDACTED] as apparently was intended.

It appears, therefore, that [REDACTED], as expected, continues to stir up trouble within the international operations of the BPP and appears to be playing [REDACTED] against CLEAVER to some degree, undoubtedly only for the benefit of [REDACTED]

With respect to the additional planned counterintelligence move involving [REDACTED], it is the observation of the San Francisco Office that this should be temporarily delayed until a more appropriate time based on information obtained from BPP sources. In this regard it is noted that from recent contacts with [REDACTED] including the information set forth herein, there has been no specific indication of contact by [REDACTED] with CLEAVER with respect to the last counterintelligence letter, and it is felt that at least some indication of discussion in this regard should be obtained prior to the submission of the second letter to [REDACTED]

San Francisco will continue to closely review all information received pertaining to [REDACTED] operations and comments and will suggest to the Bureau an appropriate time for submission of the second letter involving [REDACTED]

Copies have been directed to Bufile [REDACTED] and to Los Angeles to reflect the fact that [REDACTED] aircraft hijacking fugitive, is apparently in Nigeria at the present time and must have gone there following his expulsion from the International Staff in Algeria by ELDRIDGE CLEAVER.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY, aka Black Panther Party for Self Defense

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by Bobby George Seale, BPP Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, BPP Minister of Defense. Newton is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service," states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, George Mason Murray, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung, of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

STUDENT NATIONAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE

A source advised the Student National Coordinating Committee (SNCC), formerly known as the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, is a nonmembership organization founded in 1960, during the civil rights movement in the South.

Under the leadership of STOKELY CARMICHAEL, who served as National Chairman during the period 1966-67, SNCC evolved from a civil rights oriented group into a full-blown black revolutionary organization.

A publication entitled "1967 High Tide of Black Resistance" indicates the year 1967 was considered by SNCC as a historic milestone for the liberation of black people in the United States and the year that revolutionaries throughout the world began to understand more fully the impact of the black movement. The publication declared that "liberation will come only when there is final destruction of this mad octopus--the capitalistic system of the United States with all its life-sucking tentacles of exploitation and racism that choke the people of Africa, Asia, and Latin America. The realities of black life, together with the recognition instilled in SNCC workers, forced its members to further popularize the legitimacy of self-defense and rebellions when oppression became too great."

A second source advised that H. Rap Brown succeeded Carmichael as National Chairman of SNCC in May, 1968, and served in that capacity until June, 1968, at which time SNCC reorganized, creating ten deputy chairmen in an effort to relieve pressure by law enforcement.

In April, 1969, SNCC moved its national headquarters from Atlanta, Georgia, to New York City, where it is presently located.

H. Rap Brown announced at a press conference in New York City on July 22, 1969, that he had been elected Chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee. He announced the organization was dropping the word "Nonviolent" from its title and will be known as the Student National Coordinating Committee, with a Revolutionary Political Council functioning as its governing body. Brown, at that time, stated the use of force is necessary in obtaining revolutionary goals.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)

A characterization of the Black Panther Party (BPP) is appended hereto.

On April 1, 1970 Mr. Victor Woerheide of the United States Department of Justice telephonically contacted the San Francisco Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and pointed out that "Time" Magazine in its issue of April 6, 1970 published an interview of Bobby Seale, National Chairman of the BPP by Wallace Terry. Mr. Woerheide requested that visitors record at the San Francisco County Jail be reviewed to determine whether Terry had conducted his interview at that locality.

On April 7, 1970, [REDACTED] at San Francisco, California advised as follows:

The County Jail maintains a record of regular visitors and attorneys who contact inmates but the records do not include contacts made of inmates by any representatives of the press, radio or television.

In the case of Bobby Seale, [REDACTED] pointed out that Seale was contacted almost daily by the media and representatives of the press often accompanied [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] explained that several TV cameramen and reporters had taped interviews with Seale and that reporters from "Ramparts", a monthly magazine of San Francisco, had visited Seale on more than one occasion. [REDACTED] recalls that reporters from "Time" interviewed Seale but has no recollection of the reporter's name or no record was made of the visit. [REDACTED] stated, however, he is reasonably certain this interview occurred about seven or eight days before Seale was returned to Connecticut on March 13, 1970.

The same day, [REDACTED] San Francisco, California advised that he had no information of "Time" reporters interviewing Seale but had discussed the matter with the Sheriff and they were both of the opinion that it would not have been likely that reporters would have sought them out for permission to interview Seale inasmuch as the office had no such regulations.

He also pointed out that no records are maintained concerning visits of reporters to the Jail.

This is to advise of further results of counterintelligence action against the Black Panther Party (BPP) which has resulted in the closing of the chapter in Cleveland, Mississippi.

My memorandum 4/8/70 noted that a chapter of the National Committee to Combat Fascism (NCCF), the name now used by the BPP for new chapters, was started in Cleveland, Mississippi, in 2/70. Jackson Division furnished public source data on the BPP on a confidential basis to a trusted newspaper source. This resulted in a series of four articles on the extremist nature of this group.

When the articles appeared, the NCCF group in Cleveland removed all signs from its headquarters. Then the group was evicted from their headquarters and now it has disbanded.

This is to recommend the approval of a counter-intelligence proposal in the form of a letter to be mailed from Paris to a BPP national leader in California aimed at further disruption of the BPP.

We previously sent an anonymous letter to BPP official Eldridge Cleaver in Algiers indicating that BPP leaders in California were undercutting him. The letter, although anonymous, appeared to have been written by BPP [redacted] and it was mailed in early March, 1970, from Canada where [redacted] was at the time. The letter had excellent results, causing Cleaver to expel five international representatives of the BPP and created distrust in him of BPP leaders.

Moore

San Francisco has proposed a follow-up letter to be sent from Europe to [redacted] in California. The letter bears the typed signature [redacted] making it an apparent letter from [redacted] to [redacted]. In the letter, [redacted] confidentially tells [redacted] that Cleaver has apparently lost his mind; that he accused [redacted] of writing a disruptive letter [redacted] did not write; and that he no longer trusts BPP leaders in California. The letter has been typed on stationery from a Paris hotel discreetly obtained by the Legal Attache, Paris, and it contains several minor typing mistakes so as not to appear professionally done.

RE: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
BLACK NATIONALIST - HATE GROUPS
RACIAL INTELLIGENCE - BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP)

To be completely effective, the letter must be mailed in Paris at a time when [redacted] is there following a visit to Algiers. [redacted] makes regular trips to Algiers, all of them by way of Paris, making Paris the logical city from which to mail the letter at the opportune time. This matter will be closely followed until the letter is, in fact, mailed to insure that the situation does not change in such a manner that the letter would be out of date or is apparent as an obvious hoax.

ACTION:

If you approve, the attached airtel to Legal Attache, Paris, enclosing the counterintelligence letter will be sent instructing Legat, Paris, to hold the letter and mail it on a timely basis in line with the above and in such a manner that it cannot be traced to the Bureau.

For the information of Legat, Paris, an anonymous letter was sent to BPP official and fugitive from justice Eldridge Cleaver in Algiers during early March, 1970, which Cleaver has accepted as an actual letter from [REDACTED] who is known to you. The letter indicates that Cleaver is being undercut by BPP leaders in California and it had an excellent effect, causing Cleaver to expel five BPP international representatives and to become distrustful of BPP leaders.

The enclosed letter is a follow-up letter composed by San Francisco and prepared by the Bureau to further disrupt BPP activities. It is designed to be mailed at a time when [REDACTED] is in or has just passed through Paris immediately following one of [REDACTED] trips to Algiers. The enclosed letter should be held by you until such an occasion arises at which time you are authorized to immediately mail it in Paris in such a manner that it cannot be traced to the Bureau. Immediately advise by airtel when the letter has been mailed. You should maintain contact with local sources in Paris in order to be promptly advised when [REDACTED] is in or passing through Paris following a trip to Algiers.

The Bureau and San Francisco will be closely following this matter until the letter is mailed to insure that the situation does not change, making the letter out of date or an obvious hoax.

San Francisco should closely follow this matter on a daily basis to insure that the counterintelligence letter continues to be pertinent and timely and immediately furnish to the Bureau for transmittal to Legat, Paris, any information developed regarding travel plans of [REDACTED] through Paris.

NOTE:

See memorandum G. C. Moore to Mr. W. C. Sullivan, dated 4/9/70, captioned as above, prepared by ABF:bjr.

Attached to the yellow file copy of this airtel is a copy of the counterintelligence letter and a sheet of the stationery that was used in preparing same.

I have just finished writing this letter. You know, you know I am a most devoted Party member and that all of my energies are directed to Party business. You are aware of the results I have obtained. Because of this I feel that I must confide in you at this time.

You know that I have been a strong supporter of the Rage in representing him and the Party in my travels. I was always strongly impressed with his intellect and his keen insight with respect to problems affecting the black people. It therefore, causes me great distress to have to bring this to your attention now, when you are so busy with the struggle of our people.

I think the Rage has tripped out. Perhaps he has been working too hard. While I was there, instead of our normal discussions about party business on the international scene, he was in a very different sort of mood. Instead of discussing the affairs of the Party, he accused me of being disloyal to you and of attempting to further myself in his eyes only and of causing dissension within the party. He said that I had written him a letter from Canada during my brief visit in March before coming to headquarters before I had to leave the country. I was supposed to have criticized you and the Central Committee and implied that you thought that he was too far out of touch with things to know what was going on in Babylon, and that you were the best judge of that. He also said I informed him that you were using him as a figure image only to obtain money from him in view of his importance from a public standpoint when you and the Party did not actually need any money at this time. He also seems to think you criticized his ability and implied that his recent writings and policy statements were somewhat ridiculous. I have noted from the paper that you have used his material, but this has apparently not impressed him.

I can only think that his recent outburst when he expelled almost all of his staff has distorted his viewpoint. As you know, we lost some devoted people because of that action on his part. He claims this was because the Central Committee refused to act. David, I have no idea what the brother was talking about. I did not send him any letter. I was only in Canada briefly and while there was with Genet and Persitz all of the time, except for a brief period with Massai who was there when I arrived.

I had to leave Algiers because of other commitments and we did not have the situation completely out, but he refused to accept my denial and is convinced I sent him this letter to report on you. I expect that his strong desires to return to Babylon result from a hope in his mind to replace you in the public eye as the current party figurehead. I think that something is really wrong with him and that his thinking is so clouded at this time he could be a danger to you and the party. You may have detected some undercurrent in your contacts with him and I think you should consider carefully his recent attitudes and thereafter discuss this situation with the Central Committee and possibly with Huey to get their opinion as to what the future of the party will be with Eldridge in such a frame of mind. He has really been gone so long that he seems out of touch with reality and you should know this.

I trust you will not disclose my confidence in your examination of this situation. I only wish I could get into Babylon to discuss this with you in person. I do feel that it was necessary that I inform you as you are the only logical person to make decisions in Babylon.

If I have the chance I will sound out further regard n. his thinking, but I may not see him again in the immediate future. He may even expel me if his frame of mind continues and all of the groundwork prepared by me in Europe and Scandinavia would be lost.

I think it is necessary that you take some immediate action before this becomes more serious.

BACKGROUND:

A National Committee to Combat Fascism (NCCF) was set up in Cleveland, Mississippi, in early February, 1970, after four individuals from this town contacted Black Panther Party headquarters in San Francisco, California. The NCCF at Cleveland reached its height in activities in Cleveland in early March, 1970, when it had about fifteen members. Leaders of the group have been [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

During the period March 23-26, 1970, the Jackson Daily News, Jackson, Mississippi, a daily newspaper circulated throughout Mississippi, published a series of articles showing the Black Panther Party in a derogatory light and mentioning the NCCF group in Cleveland, Miss. This series was done by the [REDACTED] based on public type information provided to [REDACTED] by Jackson Bureau Agents with the Bureau's authority.

[REDACTED] Jackson Daily News, confidentially provided the enclosed envelope and manila paper which he said was received at the Jackson Daily News on this date, apparently from the NCCF at Cleveland, Mississippi, although the letter was anonymous.

[REDACTED] Ruleville, Mississippi; it is not known that he has been fingerprinted, however, he has been arrested on several occasions for traffic violations in various areas of Mississippi.

By relet it was suggested that Congressman Thomas F. Railsback (R. - Ill.) and his Administrative Assistant [REDACTED] could lend assistance in the above-captioned programs inasmuch as they were both strong advocates of law enforcement and were considered conservative and reliable and were also friendly with the Bureau.

The Bureau agrees that these individuals could be helpful by furnishing support as specific problems arise. It is not felt, however, that they should be deluged with general material relating to the New Left movement or black nationalists. Consideration should be given as specific issues arise to furnishing these individuals with public source material. On these occasions, however, they should be advised of the Bureau's desire to remain completely anonymous and under no circumstances should the Bureau's interest in these matters be divulged.

Prior to furnishing information to either of these individuals, Bureau authority should be secured. The request for such an authority should specifically point out the nature of the information to be furnished.

Congressman RAILSBACK has been a close friend of the FBI at Rock Island, Illinois, a long-time admirer of the Director, as well as a strong advocate of law enforcement measures in Congress favorable to law enforcement. He is considered a conservative and represents a strongly conservative constituency in the 19th Congressional District.

Reurairtel 4/6/70 captioned "Black Panther Party, National Committee to Combat Fascism (NCCF), Cleveland Division, RM," which reported friction continues to be prevalent among the members of the NCCF in Cleveland with the black and white membership fighting between themselves.

Insure you closely follow friction existing between whites and blacks in the NCCF and that you endeavor to capitalize on this situation by considering counterintelligence moves which could neutralize Black Panther Party (BPP) activity in the Cleveland area. You should not, however, initiate any action of a counterintelligence nature without prior Bureau approval.

The Bureau appreciates your counterintelligence suggestion; however, it is not being authorized at this time. Sending the proposed letter allegedly from Black Panther Party (BPP) headquarters to news media in Denver might prove an embarrassment to the Bureau. The news media could check with BPP headquarters and determine headquarters had not sent the letter. No one else, except possibly the FBI, would have a motive for sending this letter.

The Bureau feels this risk outweighs the potential benefit of creating dissension between the BPP in Denver and

The following suggestion is being made as a counter-intelligence proposal:

The National Educational Television has filmed a trial in Denver, Colorado, called "Trial - City and County of Denver vs. LAUREN R. WATSON" (it should be noted only two states in the United States allow the filming of an actual trial and they are Colorado and Texas). The film is being shown nation-wide and is currently being shown in Denver and the San Francisco area. The program is 90 minutes per day for four days.

It is noted that LAUREN R. WATSON, the defendant, is the former leader of the Black Panther Party in Denver until his expulsion in August, 1969. The trial was filmed by National Educational Television and is in regards to his arrest by the Denver Police Department in the fall of 1968 on a traffic offense that ended in a resisting an officer offense. The trial actually occurred one year ago and LAUREN WATSON was acquitted.

The filming of this trial received publicity in Denver and probably San Francisco, stating that WATSON was a BPP member.

It is suggested that a letter be directed to the news media in the San Francisco area, the Denver Post in Denver, Colorado, and the Rocky Mountain News, Denver, Colorado, stating as follows:

"To the Editor:

Much has been said regarding the filming called 'Trial - City and County of Denver vs. LAUREN R. WATSON' in which it has been said that LAUREN R. WATSON is a member of the Black Panther Party in Denver. As of August 15, 1969, WATSON, the former Minister of Defense for the Colorado Chapter of the Black Panther Party, was expelled for life. WATSON had committed the following acts against the people in violation of the Party's line:

1. Opportunism.
2. Individualism.
3. Subjectivism.
4. Failure to follow the policies, decisions, and discipline of the National Central Committee and the Central Staff of the Colorado Chapter of the Black Panther Party.

Since his expulsion, WATSON has worked for the Pig Establishment East Side Establishment Center in Denver and recently has been employed for the Pig Model Cities Program in Denver as the coordinator of the organization and development, resident participation program. By being employed in the Model Cities Program, WATSON is in fact working for the United States Government that has oppressed the Negro people. WATSON does not have the interest of the Negro people and is only for himself.

Black Panther Party
Berkeley, California"

The above statement by the BPP as to WATSON's expulsion is public knowledge as it was printed in their newsletter in Denver dated 8/25/69, and WATSON does have the above position with the Model Cities.

There would be a two-fold purpose to this letter:

1. It would point out to the public that former BPP members are infiltrating programs sponsored by the United States Government, as is the Model Cities Program.

2. WATSON still has a following of militants in Denver, mainly at the East Side Action Center and this could possibly cause a rift with the current BPP members in Denver.

If approved, it is suggested the letter be made by the San Francisco Division and mailed from Berkeley, California. If possible, it should be on BPP letterhead stationary.

Comments of the Bureau and San Francisco are suggested, but it should be expedited since the film concludes the final showing in Denver on March 26, 1970. The letter should be submitted while the program is still fresh in the minds of the people.

It was reported in this column yesterday that the Black Panther Party was seeking to invade Mississippi and had established a temporary beachhead in the Greenville - Cleveland area of the Delta. Actually, several sources report, this isn't a band of outside members but young men and women of long residence in the area who are most active, being "used" — so to speak — by apparent contacts from the urban areas of the North and West. They go under the name of the National Committee to Combat Fascism, an organization we termed about as anti-Fascist as a chicken hawk in a nest of biddies.

They broadcast and boast of their proposed Breakfast for Children Program but some of the coloring books and Christmas cards the Black Panthers have distributed would certainly indicate the presence of a flock of chicken hawks hovering about the biddie nest while eggs, grits and sow-belly were served. (See illustrations on Page 7).

The presence of this Black Panther fonthold is known to local, state and federal authorities. While it may be a noble gesture and humanitarian act by the churches, foundations or other funding agencies, it isn't the embryonic eggs, but the chicken hawk of Black Pantherism that concerns our law enforcement officials and alert citizens.

Ergo, who and what is the hawk?

The Black Panther Party sprouted in Oakland, Calif., in 1966 as a sort of community action to check on continuing reports of police brutality (Panthers know police only as Fascist "pigs.")

Next, a band of these armed characters invaded the California Legislature to protest gun-control measures under consideration in May of 1967. This got them a bag of publicity, and then the Panther boss, Huey P. Newton, was charged, tried and sentenced for the murder of an Oakland police officer and is depicted in the Black Panther Party newspaper (25 cents a copy, circulation about 80,000 per week) as a "political" prisoner — a line taken by the now highly publicized trial of the Chicago 7 which sought to make a mockery of American courts.

Arose the heir to the Newton throne, one Eldridge Cleaver who fled to Cuba but discovered that Castro wasn't as cozy with Negro extremists who wanted to run Cuba as Cleaver had thought his services were worth. Cleaver also was discouraged because Cuba's Communist cops carried more guns and aimed them at the head far closer than was comfortable for a fellow revolutionary with divergent ideas than that of the emperor of Cane Country.

Cleaver skips Cuba and hops a smoking jet to Algeria where we suspect. See CROSSROADS, Pg. 7

Cuba or at some white-stoned-domed mosque in Oran where the Arabs and Berbers play north of the Sahara and know more about agitation, intrigue, white sheets and knife-stabbings than the erstwhile Minister of Information of the Black Panther Party of the U.S.A. ever dreamed.

Enough for this man without a country. Let's get back to those who want to take the country: Black Panthers.

They are anti-establishment, anti-white and their present target is the law enforcement authorities of this nation, having engaged them in shootouts from sandbagged windows with powerful rifles and more ammunition than our fighter pilots take on missions in Vietnam. Their game is violent revolution.

While denouncing all police officers as "Fascist pigs," it may be noted the records of these so-called enemies of Fascism. The party chairman, Bobby Seale, is under indictment for murder and for a conspiracy to violate the anti-riot laws. David Hilliard, Panther chief of staff, is under indictment for making a public threat against the President of the United States and for his participation in a shootout with Oakland police in 1968. Donald Cox, East Coast Field Marshal, is under indictment for violating Federal firearms laws.

This report is given to inform Mississippians that this element has a temporary beachhead in Mississippi — in the Greenville - Cleveland area, and that fullest cooperation and support of an informed and alert citizenry will be extended to duly authorized law officials to deal with any potential criminal violation on the part of the in-

In earlier reports on the link between the Southern Student Organizing Committee which was a fraternal affiliate of the notorious Students for a Democratic Society it was brought out that the SSOC was seeking a foothold on Mississippi campuses in behalf of SDS.

For that we received a measure of criticism. But, happily, concerned parents and serious-minded students rejected the potential influence of the SSOC and the SDS flunked its course to stir ferment on our campuses — for the most part — and the business of education has proceeded rather successfully with increasing support from the current session of the Mississippi Legislature. Thanks to the absence of SSOC and SDS.

Likewise, we received a measure of criticism when we reported on a Black Festival, tightly closed to any white person, at Tougaloo College in April of 1969. All right, how many representatives of the Black Panthers were present in this area when that closed society session was held at Tougaloo? Was that the time and place that the seed was planted for the establishment of a beachhead in Mississippi for Pantherism?

Our critics of those reports were, undoubtedly, well-meaning, but we felt that maybe we had spent more time DEEP DIGGING than they did CURSORY THINKING.

When it comes to such topics as a National Committee to Combat Fascism, there were thousands of Mississippians on the ground, in the air and off-shore in ships when Benito Mussolini was tossed off his throne in Rome, and there

Oddly enough, Newton is now in jail serving a sentence for the murder of an Oakland, Calif., policeman.

The first page of the armament sheet carries this demand for party members from Newton:

"Every Black Panther Party member MUST have a functional piece and at least one thousand rounds of ammo. Every Panther in training must acquire a piece within their six weeks' training period. All Party members who do not have a piece are on one month's suspension, and they must acquire a piece or they will be EXPELLED from the party."

Newton's advice further declares:

"45 will stop all five, 00 buck shot will down the cop, 38 will open prison gate, 357 will win us our heaven. If you don't believe in lead, you're already DEAD."

Four of the six-page pamphlet describe the murderous purpose of various types of weapons, from handguns, to shotguns, rifles, machine guns, cannons and mortars.

An earlier column in this series carried testimony by Los Angeles Intelligence Sergeant Robert J. Thoms that through interlocking officers of various civil rights groups, the Black Panthers are partially financed by church groups, the federal government and Ford Foundation. To what extent this odd activity goes on elsewhere in the nation is not known, but it sounds like a perfect example of well-meaning people trying to finance the destruction of their country.

The current (March 20) issue of Aiplinger's Washington Letter suggests business establishments, especially those defense related, check up on their building security. The letter quotes key government officials in Washington as being fully aware of what some radical organizations in the nation are up to and these officials hint they have some counter plans.

There soon will be arrests in various cities with law enforcement officers nabbing fanatics who work in homemade bomb factories, making high explosives, the letter says. "This is a deadly serious thing," the letter says, reporting extremist outfits are determined to create anarchy.

Local, state and federal authorities are aware of the quiet attempt by the Black Panthers to establish a foothold in Mississippi. Concerned citizens, especially the Negro leadership of Mississippi, can avoid a serious rupture in the progress of race relations in the state by full cooperation

The Black Panther Party headquarters building in Cleveland, Miss., has been closed or else moved to a new location, Bolivar County authorities report.

The Black Panthers are seeking a foothold in the Greenville-Cleveland area under the organizational setup called the National Committee to Combat Fascism, and it propagandizes its philosophy through its weekly newspaper, "The Black Panther", published by the party's Ministry of Information, Box 2967, Custom House, San Francisco. The publication has a circulation of approximately 80,000 copies per week and has been distributed in the Mississippi Delta recently.

The Panthers outwardly advocate violence and open warfare against police. A mimeographed publication called "Black Panther Party Destruction Kit" gives advise to members and potential members on specific recommendations on how to construct firebombs, what firearms to buy—up to and including mortars, cannons and grenades.

While the Panthers seek to indoctrinate the very under its Breakfast for Children Program, the Panthers' history seems to indicate a specific appeal to the criminal element.

Some of the Breakfast for Children Program activities receive financial support from well-meaning Church, government and foundation funds, as has been revealed in earlier columns in this series.

The presence of the neophyte Panther Party chapter in the Greenville-Cleveland area is known to local, state and federal authorities. It is believed the best way to cope with such a violence-prone organization is close cooperation between concerned citizens and law enforcement authorities with the view of letting potential Negro members recognize the outfit for what it is and to alert community leaders of the lurking possible violence that has characterized Panther organizations elsewhere in the nation.

The best policy in coping with extremist organizations has been firm, successful prosecution for criminal violations. Whether any violations have been reported or arrests made among members of the neophyte Panther beachhead in Mississippi is not known. And, a Cleveland source reports a proposed Breakfast for Children Program in that community has not won significant appeal among Negro parents there.

The Panthers have been subjects for extended news reports recently. William F. Buckley, Jr., nationally syndicated columnist whose works appear regularly in the Jackson Daily News, noted that gullible liberals tossed a cocktail party in New York to raise money

Continued from Page 1A for the extremist blacks. Hosting the event which raised several thousand dollars for the Panthers were Leonard Bernstein, the conductor; Sheldon Harnick, the lyricist, who gave $250; Burton Lane, composer, $200, and Mrs. Harry Belafonte who kicked in $300.

The syndicated column team of Rowland Evans and Robert Novak noted the anti-police philosophy of the Panthers and contrasted the party's outrages against "police brutality" with the boast in the Panther newspaper that last year "167 pigs were thinned out by liberation fighters." This was inaccurate, Evans and Novak said, but confirmed that in 11 cities Panthers killed five police and wounded 42 in the past 26 months.

The Allen-Goldsmith column which also appears regularly in the Jackson Daily News recently called attention to renewed efforts by the Black Panthers to recruit members in the Washington area, and the column reported the organizational drive was headed by Jim Williams, 29, New York and Ibn Sudiata, 27, who claims he is from Biloxi, Miss.

The column described another Panther pamphlet "Armament Information" (I have a copy, too). Featured on the front page is a sketch of a Negro pointing a pistol at a white policeman. Under the sketch is this quotation from Huey P. Newton, Minister of Defense: "The racist dog policeman must withdraw immediately from our communities, cease their wanton murder and brutality and torture of black people, or face the wrath of the

Mr. Sourwine. Well, of course. This is one of a number of means, to use the word boldly, of blackmail in which the Black Panthers are engaged is it not?

Mr. Thoms. Yes, sir.

Mr. Sourwine. So, they do blackmail the business community, do they not?

Mr. Thoms. Yes, sir.

Mr. Sourwine. Do you have any idea what this blackmail amounts to in dollars and cents?

Mr. Thoms. I do not.

Mr. Sourwine. Has the police department of Los Angeles computed any figures on it?

Mr. Thoms. No, sir. Businessmen are reluctant to say anything other than "I donated."

Mr. Sourwine. Do you have any figures on how many businessmen in Los Angeles have been blackmailed by the Panthers, or if you prefer to use the euphemism, have donated to the Black Panthers?

Mr. Thoms. Perhaps 40 to 50 at a minimum.

Mr. Sourwine. In all of Los Angeles do you think they have only blackmailed 40 or 50 businesses, or is this all you know about?

Mr. Thoms. This is all we know about.

Mr. Sourwine. These are the only ones that have admitted it?

Mr. Thoms. Yes, sir.

Mr. Sourwine. There must be a great many that have not admitted it.

Mr. Thoms. Yes, sir.

Mr. Sourwine. Now, the Panthers have an operation which they brag about involving feeding people.

Mr. Thoms. Yes, sir; they do.

Mr. Sourwine. They have collected far more money for that operation than they have spent on it, have they not?

Mr. Thoms. Yes, sir. We found in Los Angeles, with the Black Panther Party breakfast program, the party itself alleged they feed 200 to 300 children when in fact they feed only 15 to 20 children.

In slipping into Mississippi under an innocent-sounding name of the National Committee to Combat Fascism with the avowed purpose of only feeding eggs, grits and sowbelly to poor children, the Black Panther Party may think it is being as quiet as a mouse licking lard. Let's melt down the lard to see what's in the pan.

The NCCF's appearance in the Greenville-Cleveland area might well be the deep concern of Negro leaders, church, civic, business, education circles. Local, state and federal law enforcement authorities are aware of the developing picture and they hope that with your cooperation all will turn out negative.

It has already been reported in this series that the NCCF is a subordinate unit of the Black Panther Party about which you have read in your newspaper from other cities. But it is now here.

Your attention is called to a document entitled "Extent of Subversion in the 'New Left'" which contains the testimony of Intelligence Sergeant Robert J. Thoms of the Los Angeles Police Department. The testimony was taken on Jan. 20, 1970, before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, headed by Sen. James O. Eastland, and released to the public on March 19, 1970.

The testimony describes (with charts) how the interlocking leadership in 49 organizations with violent or subversive connections in the Los Angeles area control vast sums of money supplied by churches, the government and foundations.

It is perfectly clear that through siphoning and clever bookkeeping tactics, subversive and violent groups can—by their "umbrella" organizational structure—be using your own tax or church money to help finance revolutionary activities in this country, although the specific testimony is confined to Los Angeles, but involves organizations highly active in Mississippi.

One of the recipients of financial support listed in Sgt. Thoms report in Los Angeles was a gift of $2,000 from the First Unitarian Church to the Black Panther Party which currently has several of its hierarchy in jail for such trivial things as murder, attempted arson, firearms violations, firebombings and other ecclesiastically-supported hobbies. But that is just in Los Angeles. Some testimony of that hearing may produce a better idea of what is going on nationwide as far as the financial support of the Black Panthers are concerned.

Without going into excessive details, reference is made to testimony on pages 37-38 in the above mentioned document. Sen. Thomas J. Dodd is presiding. J. G. Sourwine is chief counsel. Alfonso L. Tarr-bochia is chief investigator for the committee; John R. Norpel, Jr., is research director. The witness: Intelligence Sgt. Robert J. Thoms, Los Angeles Police Dept.

The testimony drawn from the two pages regarding the Black Panthers at this particular stage of the hearing:

Mr. Sourwine. Do you think the Black Panthers get a preponderance of all of their funds from the three sources mentioned, that is from the Federal Government, from church groups, and the Ford Foundation?

Mr. Thoms. No, I do not.

Mr. Sourwine. Well, then, there must be other sources. Do you know anything of other sources of funds?

Mr. Thoms. For the Panther Party?

Mr. Sourwine. Yes.

Mr. Thoms. One good source is their publication, the Black Panther Party newspaper.

Mr. Sourwine. Called the "Black Panther"?

Mr. Thoms. Yes, Sir.

Mr. Sourwine. Now, what other sources do the Panthers have?

Mr. Thoms. Private donations from individuals.

Mr. Sourwine. Do you know anything about such donations?

Mr. Thoms. I know of them, but the victims have always refused to cooperate for fear of reprisal.

Mr. Sourwine. Well, what people do you mean, people who make the payments, or make the demands, or what?

Mr. Thoms. For instance, local businessmen who are approached and asked to buy a Black Panther Party poster. They will charge $5 for a poster that cost perhaps 50 cents.

Black Warns: Revolution

By EARLE JOSIAH
(Associated Press Writer)

Coming

MIAMI — A Black militant movement called B A M M, whose leader warns "revolution is coming soon in the United States," has put down roots in Miami.

"Each of our present 30 members owns at least two weapons and is fully trained to service and operate various weapons correctly," boasts the young bushy-haired leader.

The youthful members of the Black Afro Militant Movement vow they will put an end to "all police harassment and all forms of Black oppression." This is an almost identical philosophy of the revolutionary Black Panther party, founded in Oakland, Calif., three years ago.

BAMM headquarters is located on the ground floor of a two-story apartment building in the northwest section of Miami. Members call the district The Colony, because of its predominantly Black population.

MOVE ON POLICE

"One of our first moves will be to set up a police review board and to put a stop to police entering apartments and homes in the colony without proper warrants," said the chairman who prefers to be called by his new African name — Cetewayo.

"We do not claim to be violent nor non-violent. We will deal with circumstances as they present themselves," he said.

As the first stranger to be allowed in the group's secret headquarters I had to be escorted by a member who carried a small blue badge and wore a B A M M uniform — matching blue denim pants, lumberjacket and black leather boots that reached halfway between the knee and ankle.

As we neared the entrance a door was hurriedly pushed open and we slipped inside. At the door a member kept sentry duty with a walkie-talkie in his hands. He kept spying through the shutters, checking on everything that moved outside.

He was in continuous communication with other members who formed a security network along the block leading to the headquarters.

Inside the dimly lit room about a dozen members sat quietly with wary expressions on their faces. Several old couches formed a semicircle around the room, providing enough seats for two dozen persons.

Cetewayo started off in rapid succession: "We are going to take control of the entire colony. We are going to put an end to 'kangaroo' courts and take full control of school curriculum.

"We demand the redistricting of areas where Black people live so as to permit the establishment of direct political representation and political responsibility for Black people."

'MINISTER OF DEFENSE'

As he continued, his voice grew louder and louder. "White merchants' exploitation of Black people must cease forthwith, and we demand that slum lords reduce rent rates so as to allow Black people to live within their minimal budgets."

The "Minister of Defense," a slim, tough looking youth, interrupted: "We are not here to start riots. But it is high time Black people get off their rump and do something."

Three young girls nodded in agreement. They wore dungaree slacks and black sweaters. Their hair was clipped short, giving them an authentic African personality.

"The law is not going to protect Black people, so we will protect ourselves," Cetewayo added.

No weapons were displayed. One of their most stringent rules says: "No member must carry any weapon without consent from the 'Minister of Defense' or his deputy."

Although the movement was formed just three weeks ago, Cetewayo claims: "We can mobilize hundreds of Blacks in a few hours."

Avowed Marxist Helps

Robber Recruits Extremists

By MAURICE LABELLE

The chairman of a new Black revolutionary organization being formed in the Miami area is a convicted robber awaiting trial on two criminal cases and another leader is a self-proclaimed Marxist-Leninist who has trained with Fidel Castro since before the Red takeover of Cuba.

Daniel Dennard, alias, "Cetewayo," chairman of BAMM — Black Afro Militant Movement, believed by some authorities to be a Black Panther front group, is awaiting trial on charges of breaking and entering and grand larceny in Hialeah.

He also faces charges on armed robbery in a separate case.

Dennard was reportedly placed on probation in 1934 following conviction for robbery and breaking and entering, according to the State Attorney's office.

But the real leader of the Black militant group is apparently a revolutionary by the alias of N'Sira, whose real name is Al Featherstone, whom the Associated Press identified as a "self-proclaimed" Marxist-Leninist on Jan. 16.

Featherstone, a pilot who has travelled extensively in Cuba and other Communist countries, is a leader of the Afro-American Cultural Society, a black revolutionary front.

He was identified as a Black Panther recruiter by AP, although the new group claims it's not a Black Panther organization.

A third member of BAMM is an individual identified only by his alias of "NGomane." A former University of Miami English graduate instructor (whose identity is not firmly established) is also a member, according to the underground newspaper, "The Daily Planet."

The "Planet," Feb. 28 devoted an entire page to the new militant group, which it reported based at the Center for Dialogue.

The writer, however, carefully avoided identifying the BAMM leaders by their real names, or their backgrounds, except for Featherstone, whose travels in behalf of communism were detailed.

The Center for Dialogue, at 2175 NW 26th St., is under the Rev. Don Olson's supervision.

The Lutheran minister has been involved with the Communist-front, Students for a Democratic Society, the Grape Boycott, the Socialist Labor Party, homosexuals seeking legalization of their acts, drug addicts and racial matters.

Featherstone has been affiliated with Rev. Olson for a long time.

Although BAMM disassociates itself from Black Panthers, some programs are similar, according to the Planet story by Bob Kemperman.

A blood bank and a "kitchen" for school children are among the projects related to both.

In San Francisco, children receiving food at the Black Panther "kitchens" also received "comic" books which taught them to hate white policemen and kill them.

Adults received manuals for guerrilla warfare. In San Francisco, Sacred Heart Catholic Church was the distributing point for the Maoist-Communist hate literature.

Rumors that a group of Black Panthers had recently briefed school teachers during the recent integration switchover was branded as "ridiculous," by John Tyler, head of security for the Dade school system.

Earl Josiah, a native of Trinidad writing for AP, wrote Jan. 16 that efforts by Featherstone and others to form a Black Panther Party in Miami and Florida had "failed."

Said Josiah: "The articulate and cool-mannered black power advocate (Featherstone) said he has traveled throughout Florida for several months hunting for prospective Panthers. He mentioned St. Petersburg, and Jacksonville among the cities combed for recruits, after coming to Florida from Oakland, Calif."

Oakland is home base for the Panthers.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, said that the Black Panthers are part of a New Left movement "which continued to pose a serious threat to the internal security of the United States and was involved in considerable violence, sabotage and revolutionary activity."

Hoover in 1969 placed membership in 40 chapters at between 500 and 1,200.

Black Panther Leader Nabbed In The Gables

By MAURICE LABELLE

The titular leader of the Black Afro Militant Movement (BAMM) a Black Panther front group was arrested at Doctors' Hospital Monday by Coral Gables Police — the day after a fund raising event for the Panthers in Miami Beach.

Donald Angelo Dennard, 24, alias "Cetewayo" — a Zulu name — was employed in the kitchen at Doctors' at the time he was picked up by

DONALD DENNARD

Sgt. Harold Bissett and Sgt. Lew Bartz.

He was convicted previously on burglary charges and paroled, according to Criminal Court records.

State Attorney Richard Gerstein's office stated that Dennard, wanted in three separate cases, failed to show up in Criminal Court Judge Murray Goodman's court March 12 on one case of breaking and entering and grand larceny.

He had been out on his own recognizance (without bond) and, according to the Metro Public Safety Department Tuesday, was again released without bond on his own recognizance. He is represented by a publicly-paid public defender.

His trial in Judge Goodman's court is set for May 25.

Sunday, Dennard and Al Featherston alias "M'Sir," a Black Panther recruiter and self-described Communist, appeared at the Miami Beach Cultural Center to raise money for the legal defense of the Panthers.

Featherston, a pilot who has traveled extensively to Iron Curtain countries, including Cuba, and Dennard are living and operating out of Rev. Don Olson's Center for Dialogue in Miami's northwest section.

The Miami Beach Jewish Cultural Center has been a frequent platform for socialist and communist speakers, films and fund raising activities.

According to WCKT-TV, approximately 400 to 500 persons attended the Miami Beach event, sponsored by the newly created Communist Youth Workers Liberation League — a new organization created by the Communist to replace the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs.

The W. E. B. DuBois Clubs are being phased out by the Communists since their exposure as Communist fronts by the F.B.I. and other public and private investigative agencies.

WCKT reported that they had received some complaints about the two items they carried, one Sunday night and a follow-up report Monday about the YWLL-BAMM Panther fund raising meeting.

According to WCKT, although the meeting was to feature a young Negro singer, it turned out to be a rally of revolutionary rhetoric and singing to raise funds for panthers charged with bombing several New York City buildings.

At the meeting, Dennard denied that BAMM itself was a Black Panther organization.

Marty Goodman, was identified by WCKT-TV as the spokesman for YWLL.

The crowd, many of whom had been lured by the advertising that the event was a cultural one, was told that if the Black Panthers are destroyed, all other leftist revolutionary organizations will also be in danger.

Many of those who attended were students from the University of Miami, according to the television station.

Shown At School

Parents Angered By Panther Film

By BEA MOSS

Two Black Panther films heavily laced with derision of "pig" police and calling for armed revolution have been shown recently in a southwest church and in at least two large classes at Southwest High against school policy.

Several parents have registered objections with school authorities, and principal Hugh Allsworth admitted the films were shown without prior approval.

One teacher of a class which saw the film, Frances Weintraub, also agreed the screening was "an unfortunate incident."

Neither Allsworth nor the teacher would identify the student or students, identified as white, who brought the films to school.

But they said teachers approved the showing as a class project for extra credit.

School Board policy is that all such films must go through a screening and review.

But Mrs. Weintraub said students were told in advance the nature of the film, and were given the option of leaving the class.

THE FILMS were produced by Newsreel Inc., of New York City, and are in custody of an itinerant filmmaker named Jack Hersch-feld, 35, who has been arrested at least twice in New York stemming from his part in antidraft demonstrations.

Herschfeld, driving an old blue bus with Vermont license tags, headquartered himself in an off-campus University of Miami student dormitory while in town, and apparently persuaded teenage students to sponsor showing of the film.

Betha, a University of Miami professor and unsuccessful candidate for the Metro Commission several years ago, could be contacted about other films Newsreel produces.

Betha later denied knowing Herschfeld, although one of the Black Panther films was shown at the First Unitarian Church where Betha is a member.

AFTER THE first showing of one of the films, "Off the P.G.," principal Allsworth distributed a memo to all teachers about school policy.

But another film was shown several days later with prior approval.

One of the classes in Humanities had 400 students.

One student who saw one of the films said:

"It looked to me almost as though all the words were dubbed in and the whole film was clips from various news films, and done in reverse to appear as though the police were throwing things and beating people, instead of the other way around."

One parent, Paul Bennett, who objected to the showing also gained entrance to another special showing at the First Unitarian church where it was shown to a youth group sitting on the floor in a small lounge.

"This film in my opinion was definitely a staged production. It used obscene language, put down the United States, also stomped all over the flag and advocated the killing of the police."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has classified the Black Panthers as "a serious threat to the internal security of the nation."

Black Panther Film Is Pure Propaganda

By PAT MURPHY

The Black Panther film brought into Dade County and shown by a New York anti-draft figure are well known to police agencies, and with little trouble I found a friend who set up a special screening for me in his office.

The film I saw was pure propaganda, but of little artistic quality. It was almost amateur in composition. It consisted mostly of rambling interviews with Black Panther moguls Bobby Seale, Huey Newton and Eldridge Cleaver.

It pictured the Black Panthers, outfitted in trim military tunics and black berets, shouting and marching and raising waved fists in Red Chinese fashion.

"Pig" (for police) was sprinkled in the dialogue.

Seale, Newton and Cleaver pictured the Panthers as the only salvation for America, and mostly black America.

Illustrations of black men and women with rifles slung over their shoulders, or brandish lit matches (a la Communist propaganda billboards seen in Cuba today) were shown to back up words of the narrators.

"Armed revolution, burning, overthrow, kill the 'pigs' — the theme was repeated over and over.

Near the end of the film I saw one of the Black Panther leaders (It wasn't clear whom, since the film at this point was concentrating on marching scenes) summed up the Panthers' plans.

"We're going to put together a black army, and we're going to march on this nation, and we're going to tell this nation, 'Stick 'em up, M--- F---, this is a hold-up, and we're going to take what's ours.'"

PROGRESSIVE RADIO IN S. FLA. MARCH 1

Progressive radio has finally come to South Florida. March 1, FM radio station WMUM, 97.9, will begin 24 hour a day underground music. The station located in Palm Beach will carry a strong stereo signal that may be picked up in the greater Miami area, according to a station spokesman.

WMUM is the first progressive station in the state of Florida and should be welcomed by many now frustrated listeners. As for the quality of the stations sound, we will have to wait until it goes on the air before passing judgment.

The new progressive station will have little if any competition for the time being. The only other stations playing heavy sounds now are WEDR FM in Miami and WGBS AM also located in Miami. WEDR, a station with a crazy format plays heavy sounds part of the day and is interrupted periodically by fanatical religious programs. WGBS has a midnight to 6 A.M. progressive show hosted by Chino Valles. During the rest of the day WGBS maintains a strict middle of the road format.

We wish WMUM lots of luck in the future.

 "...WE ARE THE COLONIZED PEOPLE OF THE WORLD, LIVING IN COLONIES..."

Editor's Note:

If the dozens of nationalities represented in the general population of the United States, the Black Africans, who have just begun to recognize themselves as a nationality instead of a race as they were so neatly categorized by whites for three hundred years, occupy a unique position. Ever since they were kidnapped from their homeland and herded over here they have been forced to accept the white man's culture and thus have been forced to occupy a placement of them, i.e. the very lowest social station reserved for human beings. Conveniently, they have been forced to live without something that no other people on earth must do without—a sense of history. Whites have seen to it. The birth certificate of every black man in America bears the Christian name of whatever the white slave owner passed on to his 17th or 18th century descendant in no regard whatsoever for the man's actual African name. Black men have inherited not only this but the physical proof of the crimes ever perpetrated upon one people by another.

Whites have a history nearly two thousand years old, Jews well over five thousand years. Even if you examine nationalities, there has never been a white immigrant who could only lay claim to three or four hundred years of history. But this is the myth the white man would have the black man believe; that he has no ethnic connection with the great civilizations that arose on the African continent. What hypocrisy! We let black men fight and die in our wars as Americans are supposed to, yet we do not even recognize their existence in our history books. We lynch them, bar them from our professions and businesses, ridicule them and have our police turn dogs on them, quarantine them in ghettos and starve them and yet we are outraged when they begin to consolidate and turn amongst themselves for leaders. The great National Rifle Association gun lobby is strangely silent when they seek to arm themselves as we ourselves consider it our constitutional right to do.

The Black Man's history as a nationality with a national heritage and identity scarcely ten years old yet that ten years has witnessed a fantastic accumulation of legal, judicial and police forces against them. Why? White men on the beginnings of Black America and with it the Black Man's struggle against the myth of his own inferiority. This is what is frightening us, that it? White America's debt to the Black Man is so staggering that we have been unable to refuse to acknowledge it. Instead we propose to him that HE accept responsibility for our rape.

What do you want? How can I help you? Such questions are ridiculous. It's been over four hundred years man, just do it already.

 (Staff Writer)

They cry for black power and a sense of urgency among blacks as they last retaliate against 200 years of oppression has reached its peak in the form of a new organization known as the Black way towards BAMB or other organizations which have sought refuge in the Center.

Seminars and discussions involving everything from clergymen and police to homosexuals and troubled teenagers, not to mention black as blacks and placed in Dade County's John Elliott Blood Bank. BAMB hopes to build up a supply "for black people and their friends" to relieve them of the high cost of blood transfusions incurred during medical treatment.

The kitchen is based on the Black Panther idea. It would supply a free breakfast for school children whose parents can not provide it in the home, and it would be available to any child as long as the child lives in the ghetto.

BAMB's "15-point program" outlining future goals goes much further. Among demands are "an end to exploitation throughout the colony which is caused by white merchants having businesses in the colony," and black control throughout the entire black community.

BAMB members say that harassment by law enforcement officials is a daily thing. Police are apparently more concerned with BAMB's militant tendencies towards fomenting a black revolutionary conscience than with children's kitchens and black economic and political control of the Ghetto.

BAMB's Chairman, Cetewayo, regarded as perhaps the most militant party member, was arrested and held in custody for several days on charges ranging from robbery to traffic violations. He was later released under a personal recognizance bond after BAMB engaged a lawyer who agreed to work at a no matter how many are arrested.

Whatever tenuous relations BAMB hopes that this principle will save the party from destruction no matter how many are arrested.

Whatever tenuous relations BAMB had with the police prior to the arrest seemed to crumble. "I told them the next time they come to visit BAMB, they better have a warrant," said M'Sira. "The moratorium is over!"

Framing the militant posture is a set of rules and guidelines for the group members calling for caution and restraint. No BAMB members are allowed to carry weapons, for example, without the approval of the organization's Minister of Defense or his deputy.

BAMB members are also forbidden to have narcotics or pot in their possession while participating in BAMB activities, and "acts of adventurism that might bring jeopardy to the organization" are prohibited as well.

These are basic in the preservation of the organization, members explain, a kind of acquiescence to the establishment in order to accomplish ultimate black independence.

One area where BAMB says it will not go along even for the sake of preservation is military service.

"BAMB members will join only the Black Liberation months, he drifted from country to country in an effort to understand the relationship between what was happening there and the black revolutionary movement in the U.S.

"We are the colonized people of the world, living in colonies," he said, "and our emergence is being obstructed in the same way as it is for our black brothers in Africa and the third world."

A large map of the African Continent stands in a corner of BAMB's headquarters, and each member has taken what they can as a true African name they say they can be proud of.

In 1958, M'Sira said he joined Fidel Castro in the Yucatan peninsula of Mexico and helped to recruit and train revolutionaries, although he did not fight himself, during the Cuban revolution. In appreciation for his services, M'Sira said Castro invited him back to Cuba last year where he spent the month of January traveling more than 1,000 miles around the island.

"It's the best thing I've seen anywhere," said M'Sira, who has visited nearly 50 countries throughout the world including a three-year stay in Latin America.

M'Sira said he thought the emphasis on humanity in Cuba and concentration on the welfare of those who had the least before Castro's take-over was a model for black revolution affiliated with any other movement in the country organized from within the black colony. BMM to solve immediate black problems and strike out at those who would try to stop them. "We will defend ourselves," BMM's Minister of Economic Planning, who has the African name of

do not consider myself a militant," continued the Minister. "It's just the black people who defended themselves." He advanced that this situation has convinced its members to have at least two weapons and know how to use them. "The militant posture is a reluctant one, and members are guarded in discussion of details as to their commitment to they might require them to will be as militant as the on warrants," says M'Sira, at 32 is the oldest and most articulate of the members. "We're not for suicide. It's dying for the cause. We have to live for it. We have to be dead and jail don't matter. We've got to help black people stay out of jail and on the street where they count." The two months old, BMM has its headquarters in the Center for Dialogue Inc. at 26th and 22nd Ave., a neutral place for groups and individuals of a variety of views. Rev. Olson, the Center's director, is quick to point out demands, have been sponsored by the Center.

In an upstairs corner room in the Center, BMM members talk about the issues.

"The basic goal of this organization," said M'Sira, is the development of a black revolutionary conscience. And that level of conscience will determine what we can do and when we can do it."

"This is a people's revolutionary movement and it can only go as fast as the people are willing to go. BMM is a vanguard to give guidance and coordination to the movement."

It is a slow process, M'Sira explains, and while BMM moves towards the ultimate "revolutionary conscience" it seeks to develop "down to earth" projects that relate to the immediate needs of the people.

Now in the developmental stages are a blood bank and a "kitchen" for school children in the ghetto. Blood contributions are solicited from whites as well low fee.

The incident outraged BMM members and added to a life-long sense of frustration with white authority.

"When you're black in America, you're born in jail," shouted one party member known as N'Gomane. "They think they can use the same techniques they used in Chicago, LA, and all over the country, but it won't work!"

Dressed in BMM's uniform of blue denim jacket, levis, and black turtle-neck, N'Gomane waved a finger at empty space, slicing away at the white establishment.

"They think they can clip the head off the organization, but they can clip as many heads as they want... it won't do any good."

A Central Committee composed of about half the group's members establishes a centralized leadership. BMM hopes that this principle will save the party from destruction Armed Forces," according to the rules, and M'Sira added that members are supposed to refuse induction to the military, although he said it has never come down to that so far.

M'Sira and the other BMM central committee members who had gathered at the Center for Dialogue on the day of Cetewayo's arrest described themselves as "school dropouts." It was apparent that much of the "dropping out" had been done at the college level due to a sense of futility and frustration with the white man's educational system.

One female BMM member said she had taught freshmen English class as a graduate student at the University of Miami, then rejected the idea of teaching because the white system perpetuated a false picture of the black man and worked towards keeping him oppressed.

M'Sira talked of travels in Africa, where for several in America.

But, he said, one basic problem with BMM or any other black movement was the lack of discipline.

"We're the most undisciplined people in the world. We have only the feelings inside, which make us highly emotional."

BMM's guidelines reflect the necessity for discipline.

"No party member will indulge in any activities alien to BMM's structure and purpose, unless off duty and out of uniform," one rule reads.

Other requirements state BMM members must be "neat and clean at all times" except when this is impossible because of work situations. Members are instructed to "speak politely," not damage property, return everything they borrow, never to hit or swear at black people, and "not ill-treat captives."

Three main rules of discipline in the BMM code call for members to obey orders in all activities, not to take anything from black people, and "turn in everything captured from the enemy."

"The enemy" might be broadly defined as any person or group which stands in the way of BMM's black revolutionary movement, whether the obstacle is part of the white establishment or subversive forces within the black colony itself.

BMM members described what they called the "kidnapping" of two female party members who were beaten and raped when BMM was being formed.

"A nigger playing like a black man did it," said M'Sira. "Someone with illusions of grandeur wanting to emphasize the young dudes were up-tight and wanted a fight."

Recent publicity has brought both increased attention from the police and the black community where BMM hopes more people will become aware of the party and join.

Miami may not be the ideal ground for recruiting black militants, but M'Sira for one likes the city because of its physical proximity to Cuba. If it comes down to it, he says, Cuba will serve as a refuge for black political exiles such as Black Panther Eldridge Cleaver.

"It is a gateway to refuge not offered by very many places," M'Sira says, "and some of us may have to go there as a matter of survival."

RENT STRIKE IN HARLEM, FLA.

HARLEM, Fla. (LNS)— For years, when the big man with the cigar drove up and honked, the tenants in this little all-black sugar-harvesting community knew it was rent-paying time.

Now, in the midst of a rent strike affecting half of Harlem's 2,000 residents, signs are going up telling G. H. Small the rent collector: "No rent from this house until further discussions take place with Harlem Tenants Association (HTA)."

The HTA was formed when the local housing authority raised the rents in 179 old wooden buildings in which some 200 families, probably half of them employees of the U.S. Sugar Corp., live all or part of the year.

Strikers are protesting a hike in rents from between $5.00 and $12.00 weekly to between $6.00 and $15.00 weekly. The difference means a lot to the sugar workers. Like the grape-workers, who have been striking for several years in California and Arizona, they never had a union, and are generally paid far less than the minimum wage. The HTA has also attacked the U.S. Sugar Corp., which owns the slacks. The sugar company turned the houses over to the local housing authority in order to make use of federal funds—and to increase their rate of profit.

While the housing authority threatens evictions, strike leaders plan a symbolic "people's eviction" of G.H. Small, who has spent the last 35 years doing nothing but collecting rents.

Enclosed for the Bureau are two (2) copies and for Philadelphia and San Francisco one (1) copy each of 66 self-explanatory xeroxed pages from a loose leaf notebook entitled "Improvised Munitions Handbook"

The original notebook was furnished the FBI, Seattle, by Captain MIKE SHANAHAN, 115th MIG, Fort Lawton, Washington, on March 4, 1970. SHANAHAN advised his detachment had received it for information from Group Headquarters, San Francisco, California. It reportedly was turned over to the military in San Francisco by a concerned father who confiscated it from his son's belongings. The original source is unknown to Captain SHANAHAN.

Captain SHANAHAN noted the manual definitely is not a military publication, although it would appear on the surface to be connected with Frankford Arsenal, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He noted the document contains no advertising and does not attempt sell a specific product, but merely sells violence. He commented it appears to be the most sophisticated document on the subject matter he has seen. He indicated military intelligence intends to make appropriate inquiry into the document. The original book, contained in a plain black leather cover, was to be returned to his Group Headquarters in San Francisco, California, within a week.

PLASTIC EXPLOSIVE FILLER

A plastic explosive filler can be made from potassium chlorate and petroleum jelly. This explosive can be detonated with commercial #1 or any military blasting cap.

MATERIAL REQUIRED

- Potassium chlorate
- Petroleum jelly (Vaseline)
- Piece of round stick
- Wide bowl or other container for mixing ingredients.

HOW USED

- Medicine
- Manufacture of matches
- Medicine
- Lubricant

PROCEDURE

1. Spread potassium chlorate crystals thinly on a hard surface. Roll the round stick over crystals to crush into a very fine powder until it looks like face powder or wheat flour.

2. Place 9 parts powdered potassium chlorate and 1 part petroleum jelly in a wide bowl or similar container. Mix ingredients with hands (gloves) until a uniform paste is obtained.

NOTE: Store explosive in a waterproof container until ready to use.

PIPE HAND GRENADE

Hand grenades can be made from a piece of iron pipe. The filler can be plastic or granular military explosive, improvised explosive, or propellant from shotgun or small arms ammunition.

MATERIAL REQUIRED

Iron pipe, threaded ends, $1\frac{1}{2}$ " Powder Pipe Blasting Cap to 2" diam., 3" to 6" long.
Two (2) iron pipe caps.
Explosive or propellant
Nonelectric blasting cap.
(Commercial or military)
Fuse cord
Hand drill
Pliers

PROCEDURE

1. Place blasting cap on one end of fuse cord and crimp with pliers.

NOTE: To find out how long the fuse cord should be, check the time it takes a known length to burn. If 12 inches burns in 30 seconds, a 6-inch cord will ignite the grenade in 15 seconds.

2. Screw pipe cap to one end of pipe. Place fuse cord with blasting cap into the opposite end so that the blasting cap is near the center of the pipe.

NOTE: If plastic explosive is to be used, fill pipe before inserting blasting cap. Push a round stick into the center of the explosive to make a hole and then insert the blasting cap.

3. Pour explosive or propellant into pipe a little bit at a time. Tap the base of the pipe frequently to settle filler.

4. Drill a hole in the center of the unassembled pipe cap large enough for the fuse cord to pass through.

5. Wipe pipe threads to remove any filler material.

Slide the drilled pipe cap over the fuse and screw handlight onto the pipe.

MAIL GRENADE

Effective fragmentation grenades can be made from a block of TNT or other blasting explosive and nails.

MATERIAL REQUIRED:

- Block of TNT or other blasting explosive
- Nails
- Non-Electric Military blasting cap
- Fuse Cord
- Tape, string, wire or glue

PROCEDURE:

1. If an explosive charge other than a standard TNT block is used, make a hole in the center of the charge for inserting the blasting cap. TNT can be drilled with relative safety. With plastic explosives, a hole can be made by pressing a round stick into the center of the charge. The hole should be deep enough that the blasting cap is totally within the explosive.

2. Tape, tie or glue one or two rows of closely packed nails to sides of explosive block. Nails should completely cover the four surfaces of the block.

3. Place blasting cap on one end of the fuse cord and crimp with pliers.

BLASTING CAP FUSE CORD

NOTE: To find out how long the fuse cord should be, check the time it takes a known length to burn. If 12 inches (30 cm) burns for 30 seconds, a 15 second delay will require a 6 inch (15 cm) fuse.

4. Insert the blasting cap in the hole in the block of explosive. Tape or tie the fuse cord securely in place so that it will not fall out when the grenade is thrown.

ALTERNATE USE:
An effective directional anti-personnel mine can be made by placing nails on only one side of the explosive block. For this case, an electric blasting cap can be used.

WINE BOTTLE CONE CHARGE

This cone charge will penetrate 3 to 4 inches of armor. Placed on an engine or engine compartment it will disable a tank or other vehicle.

MATERIAL REQUIRED:

Glass wine bottle with false bottom (cone shaped)
Plastic or castable explosive Blasting cap
Gasoline or Kerosene (small amount) String
Adhesive tape

PROCEDURE:

1. Soak a piece of string in gasoline or kerosene. Double wrap this string around the wine bottle approximately 3 in. (7 1/2 cm) above the top of the cone.

NOTE: A small amount of motor oil added to the gasoline or kerosene will improve results.

2. Light the string and allow to burn for 1 to 2 minutes. Then plunge the bottle into cold water to crack the bottle. The top half can now be easily removed and discarded.

3. If plastic explosive is used:
(a) pack explosive into the bottle a little at a time compressing with a wooden rod. Fill the bottle to the top.

(b) press a 1/4 in. wooden dowel bottom half 1/2 in. (12 mm) into the middle of the top of the explosive charge to form a hole for the blasting cap.

4. If TNT or other castable explosive is used:
(a) break explosive into small pieces using a wooden mallet or non-sparking metal tools. Place pieces in a tin can.

(b) Suspend this can in a larger container which is partly filled with water. A stiff wire or stick pushed through the smaller can will accomplish this.

CAUTION: The inner can must not rest on the bottom of the outer container.

(c) Heat the container on an electric hot plate or other heat source. Stir the explosive frequently with a wooden stick while it is melting.

CAUTION: Keep area well ventilated while melting explosive. Fumes may be poisonous.

(d) When all the explosive has melted, remove the inner container and stir the molten explosive until it begins to thicken. During this time the bottom half of the wire bottle should be placed in the container of hot water. This will pre-heat the bottle so that it will not crack when the explosive is poured.

(e) Remove the bottle from hot water and dry thoroughly. Pour molten explosive into the bottle and allow to cool. The crust which forms on top of the charge during cooling should be broken with a wooden stick and more explosive added. Do this as often as necessary until the bottle is filled to the top.

(f) When explosive has completely hardened, bore a hole for the blasting cap in the middle of the top of the charge about 1/8 in. (2mm) deep.

HOW TO USE:

1. Place blasting cap in the hole in the top of the charge. If non-electric cap is used be sure cap is crimped around fuse and fuse is long enough to provide safe delay.

2. Place the charge so that the bottom is 3 to 4 in. (7 1/2 to 10 cm) from the target. This can be done by taping legs to the charge or any other convenient means as long as there is nothing between the base of the charge and the target.

3. If electric cap is used, connect blasting cap wires to firing circuit.

NOTE: The effectiveness of this charge can be increased by placing it inside a can, box, or similar container and packing sand or dirt between the charge and the container.

No. 3

PIPE PISTOL FOR 9 MM AMMUNITION

A 9 mm pistol can be made from 1/4" steel gas or water pipe and fittings.

MATERIAL REQUIRED

1/4" nominal size steel pipe 6 to 8 inches long with threaded ends.
1/4" ball pipe plug

PROCEDURE

1. Carefully inspect pipe and fittings.

- Make sure that there are NO cracks or other flaws in the pipe or fittings.
- Check inside diameter of pipe using a 9 mm cartridge as a gauge. The bullet should closely fit into the pipe without forcing but the cartridge case SHOULD NOT fit into pipe.
- Outside diameter of pipe MUST NOT BE less than 1 1/2 times bullet diameter (.534 inches; 1.37 cm)

2. Drill a 9/16" (1.43 cm) diameter hole 3/8" (approximately 1 cm) into one coupling to remove the thread.

Drilled section should fit tightly over smooth section of pipe.

3. Drill a 25/64" (1 cm) diameter hole 3/4" (1.9 cm) into pipe. Use cartridge as a gauge; when a cartridge is inserted into the pipe, the base of the case should be even with the end of the pipe. Thread coupling tightly onto pipe, drilled end first.

4. Drill a hole in the center of the pipe plug just large enough for the nail to fit through.

HOLE MUST BE CENTERED IN PLUG.

5. Push nail through plug until head of nail is flush with square end. Cut nail off at other end $1/16$ " (.158 cm) away from plug. Round off end of nail with file.

6. Bend metal strap to "U" shape and drill holes for wood screws. File two small notches at top.

7. Saw or otherwise shape 2×4 (2.54 cm) thick hard wood into stock.

8. Drill a $9/16$ " diameter (1.43 cm) hole through the stock. The center of the hole should be approximately $1/2$ " (1.27 cm) from the top.

9. Slide the pipe through this hole and attach front coupling. Screw drilled plug into rear coupling.

saw. Attach to stock with wood screw on each side.

11. String elastic bands from front coupling to notch on each side of the strap.

SAFETY CHECK - TEST FIRE PISTOL BEFORE HAND FIRING

1. Locate a barrier such as a stone wall or large tree which you can stand behind in case the pistol ruptures when fired.
2. Mount pistol solidly to a table or other rigid support at least ten feet in front of the barrier.
3. Attach a cord to the firing strap on the pistol.
4. Holding the other end of the cord, go behind the barrier.
5. Pull the cord so that the firing strap is held back.
6. Release the cord to fire the pistol. (If pistol does not fire, shorten the elastic bands or increase their number.)

IMPORTANT: Fire at least five rounds from behind the barrier and then re-inspect the pistol before you attempt to hand fire it.

CHEMICAL FIRE BOTTLE

This incendiary bottle is self-igniting on target impact.

MATERIALS REQUIRED

	How Used	Common Source
Sulphuric Acid	Storage Batteries Metal Processing	Motor Vehicles Industrial Plants
Gasoline	Motor Fuel	Gas Stations or Motor Vehicles
Potassium Chlorate	Medicine	Drug Store
Sugar	Sweetening Foods	Food Store

Glass bottle with stopper (roughly 1 quart size).
Small bottle or jar with lid.
Rag or absorbent paper (paper towels, newspaper).
String or rubber bands.

PROCEDURE

1. Sulphuric Acid must be concentrated. If battery acid or other dilute acid is used, concentrate it by boiling until dense white fumes are given off. Container used should be of enamel-ware or oven glass.

CAUTION

Sulphuric acid will burn skin and destroy clothing. If any is spilled, wash it away with a large quantity of water. Fumes are also dangerous and should not be inhaled.

2. Remove the acid from heat and allow to cool to room temperature.

1. Pour gasoline into the large (1 quart) bottle until it is approximately $2/3$ full.

2. Add concentrated sulphuric acid to gasoline slowly until the bottle is filled to within 1" to 2" from top. Place the stopper on the bottle.

3. Wash the outside of the bottle thoroughly with clear water.

CAUTION

If this is not done, the fire bottle may be dangerous to handle during use.

4. Wrap a clean cloth or several sheets of absorbent paper around the outside of the bottle. Tie with string or fasten with rubber bands.

5. Dissolve $1/2$ cup (100 gm) of potassium chlorate and $1/2$ cup (100 gm) of sugar in one cup (250 cc) of boiling water.

6. Allow the solution to cool, pour into the small bottle and cap tightly. The cooled solution should be approx. $2/3$ crystals and $1/3$ liquid. If there is more liquid than this, pour off excess before using.

CAUTION

Store this bottle separately from the other bottle.

HOW TO USE

1. Shake the small bottle to mix contents and pour onto the cloth or paper around the large bottle.

Bottle can be used wet or after solution has dried. However, when dry, the sugar - potassium chlorate mixture is very sensitive to spark or flame and should be handled accordingly.

2. Throw or launch the bottle. When the bottle breaks against a hard surface (target) the fuel will ignite.

IGNITER FROM BOOK MATCHES

This is a hot igniter made from paper book matches for use with molotov cocktail and other incendiaries.

Material Required

- Paper book matches.
- Adhesive or friction tape.

Procedure

1. Remove the staple(s) from match book and separate matches from cover.

2. Fold and tape one row of matches.

3. Shape the cover into a tube with striking surface on the inside and tape. Make sure the folded cover will fit tightly around the taped match heads. Leave cover open at opposite end for insertion of the matches.

4. Push the taped matches into the tube until the bottom ends are exposed about 3/4 in. (2 cm).

3. Flatten and fold the open end of the tube so that it laps over about 1 in. (2-1/2 cm); tape in place.

Use With Molotov Cocktail

Tape the "match end tab" of the igniter to the neck of the molotov cocktail.

Grasp the "cover end tab" and pull sharply or quickly to ignite.

General Use

The book match igniter can be used by itself to ignite flammable liquids, fuse cords and similar items requiring hot ignition.

CAUTION

Store matches and completed igniters in moistureproof containers such as rubber or plastic bags until ready for use. Damp or wet paper book matches will not ignite.

MECHANICALLY INITIATED FIRE BOTTLE

The mechanically initiated Fire Bottle is an incendiary device which ignites when thrown against a hard surface.

MATERIALS REQUIRED

- Glass jar or short neck bottle with a leakproof lid or stopper.
- "Tin" can or similar container just large enough to fit over the lid of the jar.
- Coil spring (compression) approximately $1/2$ the diameter of the can and $1 1/2$ times as long.
- Caroline
- Four (4) "Blue Tip" matches
- Flat stick or piece of metal, roughly $1/2$ " x $1/16$ " x 4"
- Wire or heavy twine
- Adhesive tape

PROCEDURE

1. Draw or scratch two lines around the can - one $1/4$ " (9 mm) and the other $1/8$ " (30 mm) from the open end.

2. Cut 2 slots on opposite sides of the tin can at the line farthest from the open end. Make slots large enough for the flat stick or piece of metal to pass through.

3. Punch 2 small holes just below the rim of the open end of the can.

4. Tape blue tip matches together in pairs. The distance between the match heads should equal the inside diameter of the can. Two pairs are sufficient.

5. Attach paired matches to second and third coils of the spring, using thin wire.

6. Insert the end of the spring opposite the matches into the tin can.

7. Compress the spring until the end with the matches passes the slot in the can. Pass the flat stick or piece of metal through slots in can to hold spring in place. This acts as a safety device.

8. Punch many closely spaced small holes between the lines marked on the can to form a striking surface for the matches. Be careful not to seriously deform can.

9. Fill the jar with gasoline and cap tightly.

10. Turn can over and place over the jar so that the safety stick rests on the lid of the jar.

11. Pass wire or twine around the bottom of the jar. Thread ends through holes in can and bind tightly to jar.

12. Tape wire or cord to jar near the bottom.

HOW TO USE

1. Carefully withdraw the safety stick.

2. Throw jar at hard surface.

CAUTION:

DO NOT REMOVE SAFETY STICK UNTIL READY TO THROW FIRE BOTTLE.

The safety stick, when in place, prevents ignition of the fire bottle if it should accidentally be broken.

GELLED FLAME FUELS

Gelled or paste type fuels are often preferable to raw gasoline for use in incendiary devices such as fire bottles. This type fuel adheres more readily to the target and produces greater heat concentration.

Several methods are shown for gelling gasoline using commonly available materials. The methods are divided into the following categories based on the major ingredients.

- 4.1 Lye Systems
- 4.2 Lye-Alcohol Systems
- 4.3 Soap-Alcohol Systems
- 4.4 Egg White Systems
- 4.5 Latex Systems
- 4.6 Wax Systems
- 4.7 Animal Blood Systems

Section V
No. 4.3

GELLED FLAME FUELS

LYE SYSTEMS

Lye (also known as caustic soda or Sodium Hydroxide) can be used in combination with powdered rosin or castor oil to gel gasoline for use as a flame fuel which will adhere to target surfaces.

NOTE: This fuel is not suitable for use in the chemical (Sulphuric Acid) type of fire bottle (Section V, No. 1). The acid will react with the lye and break down the gel.

MATERIALS REQUIRED:

Parts by Volume	Ingredient	How Used	Common Source
60	Gasoline	Motor fuel	Gas station or motor vehicle
1 (stick) or 1 (powder)	Lye	Drain cleaner, Food store making of soap	Food store, Drug store
15	Rosin or Castor Oil	Manufacturing Medicine	Naval stores Paint & Varnish Industry Food and Drug Stores

PROCEDURE:

CAUTION: Make sure that there are no open flames in the area when mixing the flame fuel. NO SMOKING!

1. Pour gasoline into jar, bottle or other container. (DO NOT USE AN ALUMINUM CONTAINER.)
2. If rosin is in cake form, crush into small pieces.
3. Add rosin or castor oil to the gasoline and stir for about five (5) minutes to mix thoroughly.
4. In a second container (NOT ALUMINUM) add lye to an equal volume of water slowly with stirring.

CAUTION: Lye solution can burn skin and destroy clothing. If any is spilled, wash away immediately with large quantities of water.

5. Add lye solution to the gasoline mix and stir until mixture thickens (about one minute).

NOTE: The sample will eventually thicken to a very firm paste. This can be thinned, if desired, by stirring in additional gasoline.

Lye (also known as caustic soda or Sodium Hydroxide) can be used in combination with alcohol and any of several fats to gel gasoline for use as a flame fuel.

NOTE: This fuel is not suitable for use in the chemical (Sulphuric Acid) type of fire bottle (Section V, No. 1). The acid will react with the lye and break down the gel.

MATERIALS REQUIRED:

Parts by Volume	Ingredient	How Used	Common Source
60	Gasoline	Motor fuel	Gas station or motor vehicles
3 (flake) or Lye 1 (powder)		Drain cleaner Making of soap	Food store Drug store
3	Ethyl Alcohol	Whiskey Medicine	Liquor store Drug store

NOTE: Methyl wood alcohol or Isopropyl (rubbing) alcohol can be substituted for ethyl alcohol, but their use produces softer gels.

10	Tallow	Food Making of soap	Fat rendered by cooking the meat or suit of animals.

NOTE: The following can be substituted for the tallow:

- Wool grease (lanolin) (very good) -- Fat extracted from sheep wool.
- Cotton oil (good).
- Any vegetable oil (corn, cottonseed, peanut, linseed, etc.)
- Any fish oil.
- Butter or oleomargarine.

It is necessary when using substitutes (c) to (e) to double the given amount of fat and of lye for satisfactory burning.

PROCEDURE:

CAUTION. Make sure that there are no open flames in the area when mixing flame fuels. NO SMOKING!

1. Pour gasoline into bottle, jar or other container. (DO NOT USE AN ALUMINUM CONTAINER).

2. Add Tallow (or substitute) to the gasoline and stir for about 1/2 minute to dissolve fat.

3. Add alcohol to the gasoline mixture.

4. In a separate container (NOT ALUMINUM) slowly add lye to an equal amount of water. Mixture should be stirred constantly while adding lye.

CAUTION: Lye solution can burn skin and destroy clothing. If any is spilled, wash away immediately with large quantities of water.

5. Add lye solution to the gasoline mixture and stir occasionally until thickened (about 1/2 hour).

NOTE: The mixture will eventually (1 to 2 days) thicken to a very firm paste. This can be thinned, if desired, by stirring in additional gasoline.

a. Place 7 parts by volume of latex and 72 parts by volume of gasoline in bottle. Cap bottle and shake to mix well.

b. Add 1 part by volume vinegar (or other acid) and shake until gel forms.

CAUTION: Concentrated acids will burn skin and destroy clothing. If any is spilled, wash away immediately with large quantities of water.

2. With Natural Latex

a. Natural latex should form lumps as it comes from the plant. If lumps do not form, add a small amount of acid to the latex.

b. Strain off the latex lumps and allow to dry in air.

c. Place 20 parts by volume of latex in bottle and add 80 parts by volume of gasoline. Cover bottle and allow to stand until a swollen gel mass is obtained (2 to 3 days).

GELLED FLAME FUELS
WAX SYSTEMS

Any of several common waxes can be used to gel gasoline for use as a flame fuel which will adhere to target surfaces.

MATERIALS REQUIRED:

Parts by Volume	Ingredient	How Used	Common Source
80	Gasoline	Motor fuel Solvent	Gas station Motor vehicles
Any one of the following:
20	Onocerite Mineral wax Fossil wax Ceresin wax	Leather polish Sealing wax Candles Crayons Wax paper Textile sizing	Natural deposits General stores Department store
	Beeswax	Furniture and floor waxes Artificial fruit and flowers Lithographing Wax paper Textile finish Candles	Honeycomb of bee General store Department store
	Bayberry wax Myrtle wax	Candles Soaps Leather polish Medicine	Natural form Myrtle berries General store Department store Drug store

PROCEDURE:

- Obtaining wax from Natural Sources: Plants and berries are potential sources of natural waxes. Place the plants and/or berries in boiling water. The natural waxes will melt. Let the water cool. The natural waxes will form a solid layer on the water surface. Skim off the solid wax and let it dry. With natural waxes which have suspended matter when melted, screen the wax through a cloth.
- Melt the wax and pour into jar or bottle which has been placed in a hot water bath.
- Add gasoline to the bottle.
- When wax has completely dissolved in the gasoline, allow the water bath to cool slowly to room temperature.

NOTE: If a gel does not form, add additional wax (up to 4% by volume) and repeat the above steps. If no gel forms with 4% wax, make a Lye solution by dissolving a small amount of Lye (Sodium Hydroxide) in an equal amount of water. Add this solution (1/2% by volume) to the gasoline wax mix and shake bottle until a gel forms.

CAUTION: Do not get aged animal blood or the serum into an open cut. This can cause infections.

2. Pour blood serum into jar, bottle, or other container and add gasoline.
3. Add the salt (or other additive) to the mixture and stir until a gel forms.

ACID DELAY INCENDIARY

This device will ignite automatically after a given time delay.

MATERIAL REQUIRED:

Small jar with cap
Cardboard
Adhesive tape
Potassium Chlorate
Sugar
Sulphuric Acid (Battery Acid)
Rubber sheeting (automotive inner tube)

PROCEDURE:

1. Sulphuric acid must be concentrated. If battery acid or other dilute acid is used, concentrate it by boiling. Container used should be of earthenware or oven glass. When dense white fumes begin to appear, immediately remove the acid from heat and allow to cool to room temperature.

CAUTION: Sulphuric acid will burn skin and destroy clothing. If any is spilled, wash it away with a large quantity of water. Fumes are also dangerous and should not be inhaled.

2. Dissolve one part by volume of Potassium Chlorate and one part by volume of sugar in two parts by volume of boiling water.

3. Allow the solution to cool. When crystals settle, pour off and discard the liquid.

4. Form a tube from cardboard just large enough to fit around the outside of the jar and 2 to 3 times the height of the jar. Tape one end of the tube closed.

5. Pour wet Potassium Chlorate-sugar crystals into the tube until it is about 2/3 full. Stand the tube aside to dry.

6. Drill a hole through the cap of the jar about 1/2 inch (1 1/4 cm) in diameter.

7. Cut a disc from rubber sheet so that it just fits snugly inside the lid of the jar.

8. Partly fill jar with water, cover with rubber disc and cap tightly with the drilled lid. Invert bottle and allow to stand for a few minutes to make sure that there are no leaks. THIS IS EXTREMELY IMPORTANT.

9. Pour water from jar and fill about 1/3 full with concentrated sulphuric acid. Replace the rubber disc and cap tightly.

IMPORTANT: Wash outside of jar thoroughly with clear water. If this is not done, the jar may be dangerous to handle during use.

HOW TO USE:

1. Place the tube containing the Sugar Chlorate crystals on an incendiary or flammable material taped end down.

2. Turn the jar of sulphuric acid cap end down and slide it into the open end of the tube.

After a time delay, the acid will eat through the rubber disc and ignite the sugar chlorate mix. The delay time depends upon the thickness and type of rubber used for the disc. Before using this device, tests should be conducted to determine the delay time that can be expected.

NOTE: A piece of standard automobile inner tube (about 1/32" thick) will provide a delay time of approximately 45 minutes.

ELECTRIC BULB INITIATOR

Section VI
No. 1

Mortars, mines and similar weapons often make use of electric initiators. An electric initiator can be made using a flash light or automobile electric light bulb.

MATERIAL REQUIRED

Electric light bulb and mating socket
Cardboard or heavy paper
Black Powder
Adhesive tape

PROCEDURE

Method 1

1. Break the glass of the electric light bulb. Take care not to damage the filament. The initiator will NOT work if the filament is broken. Remove all glass above the base of the bulb.

2. Form a tube 3 to 4 inches long from cardboard or heavy paper to fit around the base of the bulb. Join the tube with adhesive tape.

3. Fit the tube to the bulb base and tape in place.

Make sure that the tube does not cover that portion of the bulb base that fits into the socket.

4. If no socket is available for connecting the initiator to the firing circuit, solder the connecting wires to the bulb base.

CAUTION: Do NOT use a hot soldering iron on the completed igniter since it may ignite the Black Powder.

5. Fill the tube with Black Powder and tape the open end of the tube closed.

Method II

If the glass bulb (electric light) is large enough to hold the Black Powder, it can be used as the container.

PROCEDURE

1. File a small hole in the top of the bulb.

2. Fill the bulb with Black Powder and tape the hole closed.

Section VI
No. 2

FUSE IGNITER FROM BOOK MATCHES

A simple, reliable fuse igniter can be made from paper book matches.

Material Required

- Paper book matches.
- Adhesive or friction tape.
- Fuse cord (improvised or commercial).
- Pin or small nail.

Procedure

1. Remove the staple(s) from match book and separate matches from covers.

2. Cut fuse cord so that inner core is exposed.

3. Tape exposed end of fuse cord in center of one row of matches.

4. Fold matches over fuse and tape.

5. Shape the cover into a tube with the striking surface on the inside and tape. Make sure the edges of the cover at the striking end are butted. Leave cover open at opposite end for insertion of the matches.

6. Push the taped matches with fuse cord into the tube until the bottom ends of the matches are exposed about 3/4 inch (2 cm).

7. Flatten and fold the open end of the tube so that it laps over about 1 inch (2-1/2 cm); tape in place.

8. Push pin or small nail through matches and fuse cord. Bend end of pin or nail.

Method of Use

To light the fuse cord, the igniter is held by both hands and pulled sharply or quickly.

CAUTION

Store matches and completed fuse igniters in moistureproof containers such as plastic or rubber type bags until ready for use. Damp or wet paper book matches will not ignite. Fuse lengths should not exceed 12 in. (30 cm) for easy storage. These can be spliced to main fuses when needed.

Section VI
No. 3

DELAY MATCHER FROM CIGARETTE

A simple and economical time delay can be made with a common cigarette.

Materials Required

Cigarette.
Paper match.
String (shoelace or similar cord).
Fuse cord (improvised or commercial).

Procedure

CUT SO INNER CORE IS EXPOSED

1. Cut end of fuse cord to expose inner core.

2. Light cigarette in normal fashion. Place a paper match so that the head is over exposed end of fuse cord and tie both to the side of the burning cigarette with string.

3. Position the burning cigarette with fuse so that it burns freely. A suggested method is to hang the delay on a twig.

NOTE

Common dry cigarettes burn about 1 inch every 7 or 8 minutes in still air. If the fuse cord is placed 1 inch from the burning end of a cigarette a time delay of 7 or 8 minutes will result.

Delay time will vary depending upon type of cigarette, wind, moisture, and other atmospheric conditions.

To obtain accurate delay time, a test run should be made under "use" conditions.

WATCH DELAY TIMER

A time delay device for use with electrical firing circuits can be made by using a watch with a plastic crystal.

Material and Equipment Required

- Watch with plastic crystal.
- Small clean metal screw.
- Battery.
- Connecting wires.
- Drill or nail.

Procedure

1. If watch has a sweep or large second hand, remove it. If delay time of more than one hour is required, also remove the minute hand. If hands are painted, carefully scrape paint from contact edge with knife.

2. Drill a hole through the crystal of the watch or pierce the crystal with a heated nail. The hole must be small enough that the screw can be tightly threaded into it.

3. Place the screw in the hole and turn down as far as possible without making contact with the face of the watch. If screw has a pointed tip, it may be necessary to grind the tip flat.

If no screw is available, pass a bent stiff wire through the hole and tape to the crystal.

IMPORTANT: Check to make sure hand of watch cannot pass screw or wire without contacting it.

How to Use

1. Set the watch so that a hand will reach the screw or wire at the time you want the firing circuit completed.
2. Wind the watch.
3. Attach a wire from the case of the watch to one terminal of the battery.
4. Attach one wire from an electric initiator (blasting cap, squib, or alarm device) to the screw or wire on the face of the watch.
5. After thorough inspection is made to assure that the screw or the wire connected to it is not touching the face or case of the watch, attach the other wire from the initiator to the second terminal of the battery.

CAUTION

Follow step 5 carefully to prevent premature initiation.

185

3. Cut the striking tips from approximately 10 strike-anywhere matches. Place match tips inside pipe cap and screw plug in finger tight.

HOW TO USE:

1. Slide the fuse cord into the hole in the pipe plug.

2. Tape lighter to fuse cord.

3. Tap point of nail on a hard surface to ignite the fuse.

DRIED SEED TIMER

A time delay device for electrical firing circuits can be made using the principle of expansion of dried seeds.

MATERIAL REQUIRED:

Dried peas, beans or other dehydrated seeds
Wide mouth glass jar with non-metal cap
Two screws or bolts
Thin metal plate
Hand drill
Screwdriver

PROCEDURE:

1. Determine the rate of rise of the dried seeds selected. This is necessary to determine delay time of the timer.

a. Place a sample of the dried seeds in the jar and cover with water.

b. Measure the time it takes for the seeds to rise a given height. Most dried seeds increase 50% in one to two hours.

2. Cut a disc from this metal plate. Disc should fit loosely inside the jar.

NOTE: If metal is painted, rusty or otherwise coated, it must be scraped or sanded to obtain a clean metal surface.

METAL PLATE

3. Drill two holes in the cap of the jar about 2 inches apart. Diameter of holes should be such that screws or bolts will thread tightly into them. If the jar has a metal cap or no cap, a piece of wood or plastic (NOT METAL) can be used as a cover.

187

4. Turn the two screws or bolts through the holes in the cap. Bolts should extend about one in. (2 1/2 cm) into the jar.

IMPORTANT: Both bolts must extend the same distance below the container cover.

5. Pour dried seeds into the container. The level will depend upon the previously measured rise time and the desired delay.

6. Place the metal disc in the jar on top of the seeds.

HOW TO USE:

1. Add just enough water to completely cover the seeds and place the cap on the jar.

2. Attach connecting wires from the firing circuit to the two screws on the cap.

Expansion of the seeds will raise the metal disc until it contacts the screws and closes the circuit.

188

4. Check actual burning rate of fuse by measuring the time it takes for a known length to burn. This is used to determine the length needed for a desired delay time. $1/3$ in. (2 1/2 cm) burns for 5 seconds, 50 in. (125 cm) of fuse cord will be needed to obtain a one minute (60 second) delay time.

SLOW BURNING FUSE

The burning rate of this fuse is approximately 2 in. (5 cm) per minute.

MATERIAL REQUIRED:

Cotton String or 3 Shoelaces
Potassium Nitrate or Potassium Chlorate
Granulated Sugar

PROCEDURE:

1. Wash cotton string or shoelaces in hot soapy water; rinse in fresh water.
2. Dissolve 1 part Potassium Nitrate or Potassium Chlorate and 1 part granulated sugar in 2 parts hot water.
3. Soak string or shoelaces in solution.
4. Twist or braid three strands of string together and allow to dry.
5. Check actual burning rate of the fuse by measuring the time it takes for a known length to burn. This is used to determine the length needed for the desired delay time. $1/3$ in. (5 cm) burns for 5 minutes, 10 in. (25 cm) will be needed to obtain a 5 minute delay.

NOTE: The last few inches of this cord (the end inserted in the material to be ignited) should be coated with the fast burning Black Powder paste if possible. This must be done when the fuse is used to ignite a blasting cap.

REMEMBER: The burning rate of either of these fuses can vary greatly. Do Not use for ignition until you have checked their burning rate.

CLOTHESPIN SWITCH

A spring type clothespin is used to make a circuit closing switch to actuate explosive charges, mines, booby traps and alarm systems.

Material Required

- Spring type clothespin.
- Solid copper wire -- 1/16 in. (2 mm) in diameter.
- Strong string on wire.
- Flat piece of wood (roughly 1/8 x 1" x 2").
- Knife.

Procedure

1. Strip four in. (10 cm) of insulation from the ends of 2 solid copper wires. Scrape copper wires with pocket knife until metal is shiny.

2. Wind one scraped wire tightly on one jaw of the clothespin, and the other wire on the other jaw.

3. Make a hole in one end of the flat piece of wood using a knife, heated nail or drill. Tie strong string or wire through the hole.

5. Place flat piece of wood between jaws of the clothespin switch.

Basic Firing Circuit

When the flat piece of wood is removed by pulling the string, the jaws of the clothespin will close completing the circuit.

CAUTION

Do not attach the battery until the switch and trip wire have been examined. Be sure the flat piece of wood is separating the jaws of the switch.

A Method of Use

Section VII
No. 2

MOUSETRAP SWITCH

A common mousetrap can be used to make a circuit closing switch for electrically initiated explosives, mines and booby traps.

MATERIAL REQUIRED:

Mousetrap
Hack saw or file
Connecting wires

PROCEDURE:

1. Remove the trip lever from the mousetrap using a hacksaw or file. Also remove the staple and holding wire.

2. Retract the striker of the mousetrap and attach the trip lever across the end of the wood base using the staple with which the holding wire was attached.

NOTE: If the trip lever is not made of metal, a piece of metal of approximately the same size should be used.

3. Strip one in. (2 1/2 cm) of insulation from the ends of 2 connecting wires.

4. Wrap one wire tightly around the spring loaded striker of the mousetrap.

9. Wrap the second wire around some part of the trip lever or piece of metal.

CONNECTING WIRES

NOTE: If a soldering iron is available, solder both of the above wires in place.

HOW TO USE:

This switch can be used in a number of ways -- one typical method is presented here.

The switch is placed inside a box which also contains the explosive and batteries. The spring loaded striker is held back by the lid of the box and when the box is opened the circuit is closed.

93

Section VII
No. 3

FLEXIBLE PLATE SWITCH

This pressure sensitive switch is used for initiating amplified mines and explosives.

MATERIAL REQUIRED:

Two flexible metal sheets
one approximately 10 in. (25 cm) square one approximately 10 in. x 8 in. (25 cm)
Piece of wood 10 in. square by 1 in. thick
Four soft wood blocks 1 in. x 1 in. x 1/8 in.
Eight flat head nails, 1 in. long
Connecting wires
Adhesive tape

PROCEDURE:

1. Nail 10 in. x 8 in. metal sheet to 10 in. square piece of wood so that 1 in. of wood shows on each side of metal. Leave one of the nails sticking up about 1/4 in.

2. Strip insulation from the end of one connecting wire. Wrap this end around the nail and drive the nail all the way in.

3. Place the four wood blocks on the corners of the wood base.

4. Place the 10 in. square flexible metal sheet so that it rests on the blocks in line with the wood base.

5. Drive four nails through the metal sheet and the blocks to fasten to the wood base. A second connecting wire is attached to one of the nails as in Step 2.

6. Wrap adhesive tape around the edges of the plate and wood base. This will assure that no dirt or other foreign matter will get between the plates and prevent the switch from operating.

HOW TO USE:

The switch is placed in a hole in the path of expected traffic and covered with a thin layer of dirt or other camouflaging material. The mine or other explosive device connected to the switch can be buried with the switch or emplaced elsewhere as desired.

When a vehicle passes over the switch, the two metal plates make contact closing the firing circuit.

Section VII
No. 4

METAL BALL SWITCH

This switch will close an electric circuit when it is tipped in any direction. It can be used alone for body trays or in combination with another switch or timer as an anti-disturbance switch.

MATERIAL REQUIRED:

Metal Ball $1/2$ " (1.27 cm) diameter (see Note)
Solid copper wire $1/16$ " (0.16 cm) diameter
Wood block 1" (2.54 cm) square by $1/4$ " thick
Hand drill
Connecting wires
Soldering iron & solder

NOTE: If other than a $1/2$ " diameter ball is used, other dimensions must be changed so that the ball will rest in the center hole of the block without touching either of the wires.

PROCEDURE:

1. DRILL four $1/16$ " holes and one $1/8$ " hole through the wood block as shown.

2. Form two "U" shaped pieces from $1/16$ " copper wire to the dimensions shown.

3. Wrap a connecting wire around one leg of each "U" at least $1/4$ " from the end and solder in place.

AP

4. Place metal ball on block so that it rests in the center hole.

5. Insert the ends of the small "U" into two holes in the block. Insert large "U" into the remaining two holes.

CAUTION: Make sure that the metal ball does not touch either "U" shaped wire when the switch is standing on its base. If the ball does touch, bend wires outward slightly.

HOW TO USE:

Mount switch vertically and connect to electrical firing circuit as with any other switch. When tipped in any direction it will close the circuit.

CAUTION: Switch must be mounted vertically and not disturbed while completing connections.

Section VB
No. 8

ALTITUDE SWITCH

This switch is designed for use with explosives placed on aircraft. It will close an electrical firing circuit when an altitude of approximately 5000 ft (1-1/2 Kft) is reached.

MATERIAL REQUIRED:

Jar or tin can
Thin sheet of flexible plastic or waxed paper
Thin metal sheet (cut from tin can)
Adhesive Tape
Connecting Wires

PROCEDURE:

1. Place sheet of plastic or waxed paper over the top of the can or jar and tape tightly to sides of container.

NOTE: Plastic sheet should not be stretched tight. A small depression should be left in the top.

2. Cut two contact strips from thin metal and bend to the shapes shown.

3. Strip insulation from the ends of two connecting wires. Attach one wire to each contact strip.

NOTE: If a soldering iron is available solder wires in place.

4. Place contact strips over container so that the larger contact is above the smaller with a very small clearance between the two.

5. Securely tape contact strips to sides of container.

HOW TO USE:

1. Connect the altimeter switch in an explosive circuit the same as any switch.
2. Place the explosive package on airplane. As the plane rises the air inside the container will expand. This forces the plastic sheet against the contacts closing the firing circuit.

NOTE: The switch will not function in a pressurized cabin. It must be placed in some part of the plane which will not be pressurized.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY
 JACKSON DIVISION
 RACIAL MATTERS

This is to advise of highly successful counterintelligence action against the Black Panther Party (BPP), which has resulted in the neutralization of a new chapter.

A chapter of the National Committee to Combat Fascism (NCCF), the name now used by the BPP for new chapters, was started in Cleveland, Mississippi, in late February, 1970. Jackson Division was given Bureau authority to furnish public source data on the BPP to a trusted newspaper source on a confidential basis. The source wrote a series of four articles on the extremist nature of the BPP, with pictures of the group's vicious propaganda, appearing in the "Jackson Daily News," the only state-wide evening newspaper in Mississippi.

After the publicity the NCCF group in Cleveland removed all signs from its headquarters and appeared to be "laying low" because of the unfavorable publicity. The editor of a weekly newspaper in Cleveland told our news source he was so impressed with the articles that he is going to do a followup story on the NCCF in Cleveland. Informants of the Jackson Office report the series on the BPP's violent nature was a shock to Negro militants in the area and is being widely discussed.

This shows the value of timely counterintelligence action in neutralizing a new BPP group before it is firmly established.

Students, Faculty Ask Seminary For $400,000 to Aid Panthers

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP) —The student-faculty governing body of Union Theological Seminary recommended today that the school put up $400,000 from its $27-million endowment to help bail 12 Panther Party members jailed here awaiting a bomb conspiracy trial.

Addressing Columbia University students went on a rampage, window-smashing several hours after the university senate declined to back a similar action.

The seminary's 65-member Assembly took the action by a 2-to-1 vote of 42 members attending a four-hour session.

John C. Bennett, president of the theological school, said a final decision would come from the trustees. He added: "I don't think the trustees can allocate funds designated for a theological and educational purpose."

Columbia students threw rocks at administration and classroom buildings following a 9 p.m. rally to protest the university's refusal to advocate that Columbia put up bail for the Panthers.

Earlier, 500 Columbia students had staged a sit-in from 2:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. while the Senate was discussing the proposal.

The demonstrators took over the Business School lobby following a rally for the Panthers that was addressed by Abbie Hoffman, one of the defendants in the Chicago Seven trial.

ReBuairtel to Albany 3/4/68 and Alexandria letter to the Bureau 11/24/69.

[REDACTED] continues to co-ordinate captioned matter for the Alexandria Division. There are currently no operations under consideration or being effected in captioned program in view of the lack of Black Nationalist-Hate Group activities in the Northern Virginia area.

Since referenced Alexandria letter, one counter-intelligence measure has been effected by the Alexandria Division. Referenced Alexandria letter reported the arrest of [REDACTED] for loitering and subsequent SGE investigation re [REDACTED] due to his employment as a U.S. Postal employee. [REDACTED] has been previously identified as [REDACTED] in Arlington, Va., a summary report has been prepared on [REDACTED], and Alexandria is awaiting Bureau approval to place him on the Agitator Index. [REDACTED] was convicted on instant loitering charge and received a suspended sentence for a one year period on condition that he not get in any additional trouble during that one year.

On 1/5/70 [REDACTED] was found guilty of Using Abusive Language and fined $350 plus cost concerning an altercation he was involved in at the Hecht Company. On 1/19/70, Bureau approval was granted to confidentially advise [REDACTED] of the 1/5/70 conviction in an effort to bring about grounds for [REDACTED] dismissal by the U.S. Post Office. This information was confidentially furnished to [REDACTED] who brought it to the attention of the judge who originally sentenced [redacted] on the loitering charge. Although the judge has not taken any action on it to date, [redacted] also brought the second conviction to the attention of [redacted] mentioning to him that the second offense occurred while [redacted] was in a Postal uniform. As a result of this action, [redacted] has been fired from the Post Office for conduct unbecoming a Postal employee and reflecting unfavorably upon the postal service during his probation period.

Among developments of Bureau interest during the previous three-month period, it is noted that there has been minimal activity on the part of the Arlington County, Va., BUF. The BUF has not had any further confrontations with the Arlington County School Board and has apparently discontinued its program to obtain "reparations" from area churches. Arlington police officials advise that they have not had any problems with the BUF in recent weeks and feel this is due to the fact that Arlington BUF members are spending most of their time in Washington. Alexandria police officials advise that the [redacted] incident which led to racial demonstrations last fall has become a dead issue. They advise that [redacted]

Re Boston airtel to Director, 3/3/70.

For information copies are being furnished San Francisco, as Office of Origin and copy for Boston and New York.

In referenced letter, Boston Division suggested that a letter which they enclosed possibly be used as a counter-intelligence measure against the Black Panther Party (BPP). Boston proposed that this letter might be given nationwide publicity as a possible follow-up to a recent syndicated newspaper column by WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY. The Indianapolis Division is in support of such a measure, giving the letter nationwide publicity through some author of a syndicated news column if possible.

The alternative method suggested by Boston, of submitting a letter to the editor of the local Indianapolis newspaper and Boston newspaper, would only be feasible for Boston, inasmuch as no individuals from Indianapolis were known to be in attendance or would have knowledge of the speech made by [redacted] on 2/27/70 at Concord, Massachusetts. If the article were first published in Boston, it would be possible to have a reprint of that article published in Indianapolis, however.

involve himself in controversial issues. With the exception of spontaneous racial confrontations between unassociated individuals of ghetto areas and police, there has not been any racial activities in the Northern Virginia area of a violent nature. Neither the BUF of Arlington nor the BACA of Alexandria have shown a propensity towards violence, and therefore, no counterintelligence action against these groups is presently contemplated. Alexandria has pending cases for BUF and BACA, and their activities are being closely followed. In the event any future counterintelligence action is deemed necessary, Alexandria will submit appropriate recommendations to the Bureau.

Indianapolis is strongly in favor of giving the incident national publicity if feasible and if the Bureau is aware of some author of a syndicated news column who could publish such an article. If not feasible, it is recommended that Boston be allowed to publish their letter to the editor locally and then that article be sent to Indianapolis so that it could then be published in the local paper in Indianapolis. Indianapolis is also of the opinion in concurrence with Boston that an early handling of such a counterintelligence measure would be more effective.

NOTE:

Omaha, in reairtel, recommended an anonymous letter be sent to BPP National Headquarters alleging that the United Front Against Fascism (UFAF) and one [REDACTED] obtained donations from the Omaha black community under false pretenses. It had been indicated [REDACTED] was incarcerated during February, 1970, and donations were needed to gain his release. Omaha advised the UFAF needed funds and an article appeared in a UFAF newsletter quoting [REDACTED] as thanking the people of the black community for their generous donations in getting him out of jail.

[REDACTED] Omaha advised no record has been located indicating [REDACTED] to have been incarcerated in the Omaha city or county jail during February, 1970. In view of this Omaha feels the UFAF and [REDACTED] used this as a ruse for obtaining funds needed and requests authority as a counterintelligence measure to write an anonymous letter to BPP National Headquarters as well as to make anonymous phone calls to [REDACTED] certain other unidentified individuals and local Negro publications in the black community of Omaha.

The UFAF is a name of an organization composed of black extremists which was formed after the disbanding of the Omaha BPP chapter. [REDACTED] is included on the Security Index and has been active in the UFAF in Omaha. [REDACTED] is included on the Agitator Index.

As pointed out in previous communication, Omaha is planning on some type of Counter Intelligence Program to disrupt the sale of "The Black Panther Party" newspaper. This will be done by possibly affecting counter intelligence measures at the disruption of the distribution of this paper.

The National Committee to Confront Fascism (NCCF), which was formerly the United Front Against Fascism (UFAF), newsletter of 2-17-70 "Freedom By Any Means Necessary," issue 15, had an article which reads as follows:

"Our department Chairman, ED POINDEXTER, wishes to extend his sincere thanks to the people in the Black Colony for their generous donations to get him out of jail on Wednesday."

"The donations were a sure indication of the support the UFAF is getting from the people. So right on! People..."

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
RACIAL MATTERS

On March 5, 1970, we received information from our special coverage of the Black Panther Party headquarters in New York City that the Union Theological Seminary in New York City planned to pledge stocks and bonds of the Seminary in the amount of $300,000 to be used as bail for three Black Panthers who are part of 21 Black Panthers indicted on April 2, 1969, for conspiracy to set fire to several buildings in New York City.

With the Director's approval, this information was furnished on a very discreet basis to [REDACTED] a close contact of the New York Office, in an effort to obtain [REDACTED]

New York teletype March 11, 1970, (attached) indicates that the [REDACTED] has been unable to verify a story of Union Theological Seminary that it was prepared to donate the above money for bail purposes. [REDACTED] interviewed the President of Union Theological Seminary who denied any knowledge of such a plan. [REDACTED] expressed the opinion that his reporters have made so many inquiries at the seminary that it would not now contribute to the Black Panther Party bail fund fearing adverse publicity. If such is the case, this would accomplish the purpose for which we made the information available to [REDACTED]

DISCUSSION:

That no reference to the above matter appear in the Director's testimony before the House Appropriations Committee.

Students, Faculty Ask Seminary
For $400,000 to Bail Panthers

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP) —The student-faculty governing body of Union Theological Seminary recommended today that the school put up $400,000 from its $27-million endowment to help bail 12 Black Panthers jailed here on a conspiracy charge.

At Union Theological Seminary, students went on a rampage, window-smashing and looting several hours after the university senate declined to take a similar action.

The seminary's 65-member Assembly took the action by a 2-6-1 vote of 42 members attending a four-hour session.

John C. Bennett, president of the theological school, said the decision would come from the trustees. He added: "I don't think the trustees can allocate funds designed for a theological and educational purpose."

Columbia students threw rocks at administration and classroom buildings following a 9 p.m. rally to protest the university Senate's refusal to advocate that Columbia put up bail for the Panthers.

Earlier, 500 Columbia students had staged a sit-in from 3:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. while Senate was discussing the proposal.

The demonstrators took over the Business School lobby following a rally for the Panthers that was addressed by Abbie Hoffman, one of the defendants in the Chicago Seven trial.

Re Boston airtel to Director, 3/3/70.

For information copies are being furnished San Francisco, as Office of Origin and copy for Boston and New York.

In referenced letter, Boston Division suggested that a letter which they enclosed possibly be used as a counterintelligence measure against the Black Panther Party (BPP).
Boston proposed that this letter might be given nationwide publicity as a possible follow-up to a recent syndicated newspaper column by WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY. The Indianapolis Division is in support of such a measure, giving the letter nationwide publicity through some author of a syndicated news column if possible.

The alternative method suggested by Boston, of submitting a letter to the editor of the local Indianapolis newspaper and Boston newspaper, would only be feasible for Boston, inasmuch as no individuals from Indianapolis were known to be in attendance or would have knowledge of the speech made by [redacted] on 2/27/70 at Concord, Massachusetts. If the article were first published in Boston, it would be possible to have a reprint of that article published in Indianapolis, however.

Indianapolis is strongly in favor of giving the incident national publicity if feasible and if the Bureau is aware of some author of a syndicated news column who could publish such an article. If not feasible, it is recommended that Boston be allowed to publish their letter to the editor locally and then that article be sent to Indianapolis so that it could then be published in the local paper in Indianapolis. Indianapolis is also of the opinion in concurrence with Boston that an early handling of such a counterintelligence measure would be more effective.

RE: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM

NOTE:

Omaha, in resairtel, recommended an anonymous letter be sent to BPP National Headquarters alleging that the United Front Against Fascism (UFAF) and one ██████████ obtained donations from the Omaha black community under false pretenses. It had been indicated ██████████ was incarcerated during February, 1970, and donations were needed to gain his release. Omaha advised the UFAF needed funds and an article appeared in a UFAF newsletter quoting ██████████ as thanking the people of the black community for their generous donations in getting him out of jail.

██████████ Omaha advised no record has been located indicating ██████████ to have been incarcerated in the Omaha city or county jail during February, 1970. In view of this Omaha feels the UFAF and ██████████ used this as a ruse for obtaining funds needed and requests authority as a counterintelligence measure to write an anonymous letter to BPP National Headquarters as well as to make anonymous phone calls to ██████████, certain other unidentified individuals and local Negro publications in the black community of Omaha.

The UFAF is a name of an organization composed of black extremists which was formed after the disbanding of the Omaha BPP chapter. ██████████ is included on the Security Index and has been active in the UFAF in Omaha. ██████████ is included on the Agitator Index.

Re Omaha letter to Bureau dated 2-27-70 and Bureau letter dated 12-10-69.

As pointed out in previous communication, Omaha is planning on some type of Counter Intelligence Program to disrupt the sale of "The Black Panther Party" newspaper. This will be done by possibly affecting counter intelligence measures at the disruption of the distribution of this paper.

The National Committee to Confront Fascism (NCCF), which was formerly the United Front Against Fascism (UFAF), newsletter of 2-17-70 "Freedom By Any Means Necessary," issue 15, had an article which reads as follows:

"Our department Chairman, ED POINDEXTER, wishes to extend his sincere thanks to the people in the Black Colony for their generous donations to get him out of jail on Wednesday."

"The donations were a sure indication of the support the UFAF is getting from the people. So right on! People..."

Sister,

It is not a pleasant task to write this letter, however, in view of what is happening here at Berkeley I feel I must. I admire your sincerity and dedication to the cause and that causes me to tell you that despite David's outward show of affection and pleasure at what you are doing, he has let it be known here that he has heard that your WCCF consists of no more than three or four "real losers". He, in fact, stated he won't give a BPP charter to Milwaukee if they get 300 members. Somehow or other he has found out that the newsletters you have been printing are useless and not being read by anyone. took the blame for the incorrect advertising was [REDACTED]

Boston is in possession of a pamphlet obtained at the above meeting, which describes the Concord Fair Practices Committee as having been organized in 1950 to assist victims of discrimination and to help combat conditions which give rise to discrimination.

Another obtained pamphlet advertises the talk by [REDACTED] and describes him as a Black Panther as well as a political strategist and educational consultant to the Black Panther Party.

No Boston area paper has made mention of the above 2-27-70, affair in Concord.

It is suggested this enclosed item may be given nationwide publicity as a possible follow-up to a recent syndicated newspaper column by WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY entitled, "Invite A Panther to a Party" in which BUCKLEY referred to a party run by LEONARD BERNSTEIN, former New York Philharmonic Orchestra leader, at which [REDACTED] was an invited guest.

As an alternative to above, the Bureau is requested to consider granting permission to the Boston and Indianapolis offices to submit enclosed item to a "Letters to the Editor" column of a local paper, indicating same was authored by an anonymous concerned citizen.

Boston is of the opinion that an early handling of this matter would be effective.

Persons who are giving consideration to following a recent trend of inviting a Panther to a party should be sure and check the guest's credentials to insure that he is a bona-fide Panther. If this little item is not taken care of the host may be in for an uproarious time.

On last Friday evening in Concord, Massachusetts, the Concord Fair Practices Committee, a group proud of its liberal stand on issues, scheduled [redacted] the recipient of a doctorate from the University of Chicago, to speak on the Black Panthers. Advance advertising described him as a Black Panther and a professor at Xabash College, Indiana, as well as the head of the Black Student Union Advisory Council at the college.

[redacted] in his talk to the 95% white Concord group, revealed himself as an adept apologist for the Black Panther Party relating how the Panthers around the country have been beleaguered by local and federal authorities and at the same time glossing over the crimes participated in by Panthers.

With his rhetoric and his remarks critical of the government, [redacted] speech was interrupted several times by applause from the audience. One interruption he didn't count on, however, occurred 45 minutes into his talk when five members of the Boston Black Panther Party invaded the hall and approached the podium from two different directions.

The audience of more than 300 was fear-stricken but the most terrified individual in the hall was [redacted] who was now confronted by the very individuals whose praises he was previously singing. The Panthers told the audience that they checked on [redacted] found he was not a Panther and said he was a fraud and a pig. [redacted] noticeably less self-assured than minutes earlier, admitted to the invaders that he was not a member of the Panthers but stated he loved them. He dropped a few names of Indiana Panthers but the Boston group was apparently not impressed. The tension was not relieved until a member of the host committee took the blame for the error in the advance publicity.

Before the Boston group departed they rejected an invitation to participate in the remainder of the program but revealed an additional concern involving the money collected at the door for the talk by the non-Panther. The issue was not resolved but the real Panthers were certain to be heard from again in that regard.

In the remainder of his talk, [redacted] who [redacted] in the Peace and Freedom ticket, stated that his only reason for not joining the Panthers is that he is "afraid to pick up the gun", a requisite for a good Panther.

The speech by now-deceased FRED HAMPTON, Chairman of the Illinois Black Panther Party (BPP) at Illinois State University (ISU) on 10/29/69, at which attendees were required to submit to comprehensive searches of their person, received unfavorable press coverage in the "Vidette", ISU, Normal, Illinois, student newspaper, and the "Daily Pantagraph", daily newspaper of Bloomington, Illinois.

On 11/14/69 HAMPTON again spoke, this time at Southern Illinois University (SIU), Carbondale, Illinois, where attendees were not subjected to any type of search.

After these incidents, agents of this Division working with the BPP made the suggestion that when a BPP leader is scheduled to speak at a college or university, that the college administration be shown the text of the last address as well as leaking to the press that everyone was or is searched that attends these speeches and any other unfavorable information regarding the organization.

On 1/27/70 BOBBY RUSH, BPP leader from Chicago, Illinois, made a speech at Western Illinois University (WIU), Macomb, Illinois. Prior to his appearance this office furnished copies of newspaper clippings, showing the BPP in an unfavorable light, on a confidential basis to the "Macomb Daily Journal", daily newspaper of Macomb, Illinois.

On 1/26/70 [redacted] "Macomb Daily Journal", advised that he would not use the newspaper clippings furnished him. He stated that the "Macomb Daily Journal" would not acknowledge or give any publicity whatsoever to RUSH's appearance, since even unfavorable information might tend to increase the popularity of his appearance and add to contributions received.

Reurlet 3-10-70.

Minneapolis is authorized to send the anonymous letter set out in relet. The usual precautions to prevent this letter from being traced to this Bureau should be taken.

San Francisco should be alert for any results of this mailing. The letter being sent encloses a newspaper clipping regarding "Panthers" robbing an elderly couple in St. Paul, Minnesota. The anonymous letter forwarding this clipping to Black Panther Party (BPP) headquarters complains that the Panthers are supposed to help the community, not rob them. Minneapolis feels this letter might cause further distrust of local black militants by BPP headquarters.

NOTE:

There is no BPP chapter in Minneapolis-St. Paul, although various individuals have contacted BPP headquarters about the possibility of starting a chapter. It appears, however, that BPP headquarters does not trust local black militants, and this letter should help further any distrust. Since the letter is anonymous, there is no possibility of any embarrassment to the Bureau.

SUBJECT: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM

RACIAL INTELLIGENCE

To date, as the Bureau is aware, there has been no local chapter of the Black Panther Party (BPP) set up in this Division although from time to time correspondence has taken place between individuals in both Minneapolis and St. Paul and BPP headquarters relative to a possible local chapter. It is further inferred from information furnished by San Francisco informants that BPP headquarters does not particularly trust any of the local militant Negroes in Minneapolis-St. Paul.

Attached is a Xerox copy of an article from the March 4, 1970, issue of the "Minneapolis Star," a newspaper of general circulation.

Bureau authority is requested to attach the original clipping to the following handwritten letter on lined paper and mail it to BPP headquarters:

"To Black Panther Officers

"I read a couple times your paper in which you tell how your goin to help our community in citys and how you is again robbin by the Panthers again the Poor.

"This clippin I'm sendin ain't goin to help us poor blacks one bit and if I ever catch one of your guys sellin papers round here again watch out.

"Dislusioned"

It is felt this letter may help to cause further mistrust by BPP headquarters with local militant Negroes and deter the establishing of a BPP headquarters here.

The house was ransacked and the phone wire cut by the bandits, police said.

For information concerning the counterintelligence program directed against the Black Panther Party (BPP), the Bureau's attention is directed to Los Angeles letters dated 12/5/69, 12/26/69, 1/15/70, 2/3/70, and 2/17/70. In accordance with Bureau's instructions, the counterintelligence operations against the BPP are not being set forth in this letter. The next quarterly letter will contain this information in accordance with instructions contained in Bureau letter dated 2/27/70, captioned "BLACK PANTHER PARTY, RACIAL MATTERS".

1. Operations Under Consideration

The Los Angeles Office continues to follow violations of the antiriot and gun control laws by black nationalists for possible prosecution of these individuals under Federal and State statutes.

Telephone toll calls of various black nationalist leaders are continually reviewed under existing Bureau policy to determine what counterintelligence programs might be placed into effect.

2. Operations Being Effected

The interview program within the black nationalist movement continues to cause some concern and disruption among the members. This program is being continued with regularity.

For the information of the Bureau, informants have reported that if the BPP in San Diego is ever reorganized, [redacted] would like to be the local Captain. Although there is no indication at the present time that any reorganization attempts are being made, [redacted] is "politicking" for the position if it should ever become available.

In view of the possibility that the BPP should attempt to reorganize in San Diego, Bureau approval is requested to institute the rumor throughout the black community in San Diego that [redacted] is currently operating and being paid as a police informant. Reurlet 3/5/70.

Minneapolis is authorized to send the anonymous letter set out in referenced letter with its enclosure to Black Panther Party (BPP) headquarters in California. Precautions should be taken to insure this letter cannot be traced to this Bureau.

Since it is unlikely that the writer of this letter would have access to a Xerox machine, the enclosure should be the original document and not a Xerox copy.

For the information of Chicago and San Francisco, Minneapolis suggested sending an anonymous letter to BPP headquarters complaining about BPP security and enclosing a letter from four individuals interested in starting a BPP chapter in Minneapolis. This letter was found in a local department store and turned over to the Minneapolis Office. The anonymous letter will merely enclose the document and say it was found in a local department store. The document is apparently addressed to the Chicago chapter of the BPP asking for assistance in organizing a Minneapolis chapter. San Francisco and Chicago should be alert for any results of this operation and should advise the Bureau and Minneapolis.

Re Minneapolis letter to Bureau dated 12/1/69;
Minneapolis letter to Bureau dated 3/2/70.

To date there has still been no Black Panther Party (BPP) chapter established in the Minneapolis Division. There are a few individuals now securing BPP newspapers for resale. In connection with the possible establishment of a chapter of the BPP, the Minneapolis Office received from [redacted] on February 11, 1970, a letter that was found on the floor in the Flower Shop of the downtown main store of Dayton's Department Store Company. This letter is enclosed.

The following contemplated letter will be sent by Minneapolis anonymously to BPP Headquarters in California in an effort to thwart the activity of the individuals referred to in the enclosed letter:

"Black Panther Party Headquarters:

"I have always had an interest in the freedom of my people and have been particularly interested in the activities of the NAACP and most recently that of the Black Panther Party. However, I found the enclosed letter on the floor of a store in Minneapolis which certainly doesn't speak well of your security operations and from which I believe the people involved are trying to take over and run an operation on their own here. Now I know some of these boys and it's my conclusion they are doing this just to collect some money for themselves."

January 13, 1970

Brothers,

[redacted] have received a letter from the Chairman Bobby Seal. Bobby asked us to organize a Neighborhood Committee to Combat Fascism. He said we would need a least one member of the Black Panther Party to help organize, to politically educate, and to bring about a collective atmosphere. None of you brothers without any ties could come up to assist us, we could organize a successful N.C.F. - I am sure.

Right now we brothers are trying to find a house or storefront to set up our headquarters. We have tried the Housing and Redevelopment Authority, but we come to find that they are controlled by the pig government. So we are still looking.

Bobby says that the Black Panther Party will help us financially. [redacted] and giving us half of the paper money, and also, 1,000 free papers to get us started.

We have proposed that the B.S.U. of Augsburg College allow us some sort of financial aid. The B.S.U. has consented to our proposal.

E's brothers would like to organize a Black Panther Party up here also.
Will you brothers tell us how to go about it? If it is at all possible, one of you members could come up and give us our necessary training and S.C. If none of you brothers are free, will one of us be able to come down there? Are you still having activities and rallies on the anniversary of anniversary of Malcolm X's ^{assassination} assassination?
Send for us if you are; we would like to see how you revolutionary brothers function. Let us know ahead of time, ^{at the moment} even as soon as possible.

We all have revolutionary ideology and know the necessity of exposing Amerikkka's racist, capitalistic, imperialistic, and fascist policies, to our communities. We know we must mobilize the masses and make revolutionaries out of the people.

Can you brothers send up any posters or buttons; we'll need the posters for our office. Also, we will need some literature on ^{Marxist} Leninism, because we haven't received any of that sort of PE. That is, if no members of the party are able to come up.

You brothers be sure to keep in touch, and let us know what's happening. We'll do the same.
